Marie P. DeBartolo Sports Centre

In loving memory of his mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers' Owner-President Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., dedicated the team's new training facility and office complex in August, 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of Candlestick Park), the complex provides players, coaches, and staff members with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations, and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the new facility exemplifies DeBartolo's strive for perfection, and his drive for superiority. It also reflects his dedication to the organization and his first-class standard for operating procedures.

Two natural grass practice fields, with underground drainage and watering systems, allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions. Additionally, a full-size Omniturf (artificial turf) field features an innovative fiber-and-sand surface design which minimizes player injury.

A two-story, 52,000 square-foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers' had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities (except the ticket and luxury suite operations, which remain at Candlestick Park). Located upstairs at the facility are offices for: coaches, administration, video operations, business operations, public relations, pro scouting, college scouting, and marketing/promotions.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with 60 permanent lockers, and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps when squad sizes are larger.

Off the locker room is a "players only" lounge for relaxing between meetings or practices. And, in an adjacent building are two racquetball courts for players, coaches, and staff recreation. The coaches and front office staff also have separate locker rooms.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-foot by 40-foot hydrotherapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms—each featuring a video cassette projector (allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games and that day's practice sessions or to preview an upcoming opponent).

Media facilities include a sizable workroom, alongside a large (120-seat) auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), making the new set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the media workroom is a picnic area which can be used for press luncheons.

Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. — OWNER

Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., enters his 17th season as owner of the San Francisco 49ers in 1993. During this period, DeBartolo has merited considerable stature and esteem in the sports community for his successful management of the franchise.

Upon his purchase of the club in 1977, DeBartolo began a process to upgrade the organization's front office administration and on-field talent. DeBartolo's vision was to create a winning franchise that operated with class and dignity. However, of equal importance was his desire to create an atmosphere conducive to developing a strong sense of kinship within the operation.

With this formula, DeBartolo began his stewardship of the 49ers. However, the initial seasons were difficult to endure. The team closed out the 70's by finishing with consecutive 2-14 records (1978-79).

Unwavering in his commitment, DeBartolo began to reap dividends for his efforts during the 1980's. DeBartolo's decisiveness and guidance were reflected by changes within the organization that resulted in elevating a struggling franchise into a perennial playoff contender.

Since buying the 49ers in '77, DeBartolo's team has won nine division titles, four conference trophies, and four world championships. The Niners captured NFC West crowns in 1981, '83, '84, '86, '87, '88, '89, '90, and '92; made NFC Championship Game appearances in 1981, 1983, 1984, 1988, 1989, 1990, and 1992; and claimed world championships in 1981 (Super Bowl XVI), '84 (Super Bowl XIX), '88 (Super Bowl XXIII), and 1989 (Super Bowl XXIV).

During the past 12 seasons (1981-1992), San Francisco has won 164 games (counting postseason) — an average of 13 victories per year, has reached the playoffs ten times (including eight consecutive seasons from 1983-90), and is the only NFL team to produce a winning record in each of the past 10 seasons (1983-92).

DeBartolo, regarded as one of the nation's top sports executives was honored by Football News as its 1989 NFL Man-of-the-Year. A former member of the League's realignment/expansion committee and a current member of its expansion committee, DeBartolo is an influential force in the League's hierarchy.

Owner and chief executive officer of the 49ers, DeBartolo, is also president and chief administrative officer of The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation in Youngstown, Ohio.

With the 49ers, his primary function is to provide administrative leadership, financial guidance, and emotional support, which Eddie (as he is known to friends and family) has done since he purchased 90 percent of the franchise from the Morabito family in 1977.

With the DeBartolo Corporation, 'Mr. D' oversees the operation and growth of one of the country's top real estate development and management firms. Founded in 1948 by his father, Edward J. DeBartolo (chairman and chief executive officer), the corporation is one of America's greatest business success stories.

Spanning those six decades (from the '40s into the '90s), the DeBartolo Corporation has developed over 74 million square feet of prime retail space across the country and operates over 64 million square feet — making it the nation's largest developer and manager of shopping malls (nearly 100 in 23 states).

Office towers, mixed-use projects, and hotels are also among the firm's holdings nationwide. It previously owned the Pittsburgh Penguins, the 1991-92 NHL Stanley Cup champions.

Following graduation from Notre Dame in 1968, Eddie began an executive training program which gave him valuable experience in each of the Corporation's departments. He was appointed vice president in 1971, and became executive vice president five years later. In '79, he assumed his current position.

DeBartolo has actively sponsored charitable institutions. Besides his philanthropic support, he has also given generously of his time and influence to help St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, Heart Fund, Cancer Crusade, United Way, ALS Research Foundation, Crippled Children's Society, Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame, Police Athletic League, and numerous other worthwhile organizations. The DeBartolo family donated $33 million to Notre Dame in 1989, one of the largest donations ever given to higher education in America.

He received the 1982 Salvation Army Citation of Merit in recognition of his humanitarian efforts. The organization's highest honor, the award had previously been presented to such notables as Dwight D. Eisenhower, William Randolph Hearst, and Cecil B. DeMille.

In '85, DeBartolo was hailed by the Boys' Town of Italy as its Man-of-the-Year for his support of that organization (which aids homeless and needy children). He was also the 1985 recipient of the prestigious Warner Award, the highest national individual honor given by the Pop Warner (youth) Football Association.

Eddie was national chairman for the 19th Annual Victor Awards in 1985 (sponsored by the Sportsmen's Club For The City of Hope) and served as national chairman for the City of Hope's '86 "Spirit of Life Award" banquet.

In 1988, the San Francisco Convention & Visitors Bureau bestowed upon DeBartolo the Silver Cable Car Award for his "extraordinary contributions to San Francisco and its visitor industry."

Eddie is married to his childhood sweetheart, the former Cynthia Papalia, who prefers the nickname Candy. The Catholic Youth Organization of the Bay Area presented its '90 Service to Youth Award to them for their many years of generous support.

Born and raised in Youngstown, he has actively supported that city's organizations, as well. For example, he has served as director of the Youngstown Youth Center and as a member of the Youngstown State University Board of Trustees.

They have three daughters: Lisa Marie, who is Director of the San Francisco 49ers Foundation, Tiffanie Lynne, and Nicole Anne.

Carmen A. Policy—PRESIDENT

Carmen A. Policy begins his third year as club president and 11th season with the 49ers in 1993.

As president, Carmen supervises the 49ers' front office and League relations, while coordinating all of the club's activities in association with John McVay (vice president for football administration), Keith Simon (vice president for business operations and chief financial officer) and the team's department heads.

Policy's tireless, energetic work ethic sets the standard for the entire organization. His ability to understand and act upon comprehensive situations continues to impress his colleagues and counterparts. Policy has received high praise from peers within the League for his command of the myriad of challenges that cross his desk daily.

He has cultivated close associations with members of the NFL hierarchy, who respect and appreciate Carmen's creative input on many of the tough issues that the League must address.

In his initial decade with the 49ers, Policy ascended from vice president and general counsel (1983-88), to executive vice president and general counsel (1989-90), to club president (1991-current).

Many feel that his '91 promotion was a fitting tribute from team owner Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., for Policy's years of hard work.

Carmen, who admittedly enjoys working closely with DeBartolo in all areas of organizational responsibility, has overseen all legal and business considerations relating to the 49ers' day-to-day operations since '89, and has been even more involved since 1991.

He was named to the World League Board of Directors in '90, and served as an important factor in that League's organizational structure and operation. The World League played two seasons (1991 & '92) and is scheduled to resume operations in '94, following a year hiatus.

Often recognized for his involvement with social causes, Carmen somehow finds the time and energy to lead the team's participation with local civic programs, area humanitarian ventures, and other community projects. He recently was appointed to the Board of Directors of the San Francisco Convention & Visitors Bureau.

Serving on the board of directors for "49ers Foundation," Policy has provided guidance and support to this non-profit entity of the team's community outreach projects.

One of the 49ers' 1991 regional United Way spokesmen, Policy is a native of Youngstown, OH. He was personal attorney for Eddie DeBartolo for many years prior to joining the 49ers' staff in '83.

A product of Youngstown Ursuline High, he graduated from Youngstown State University in 1963, and received his Juris Doctorate Degree in 1966 from Georgetown University Law Center.

Prior to leaving his partnership in the Youngstown law firm of Flask, Policy, Weimer, and White in 1991, he was listed in all four existing editions of the highly respected publication The Best Lawyers in America — including the most recent 1991-92 edition. Inclusion is a significant honor since it's based on peer evaluations.

Carmen has five children: James (a first-year orthopedic resident in the Bay Area), Daniel (a Notre Dame graduate who attends law school in the Bay Area), Edward (a Notre Dame graduate who also attends law school in the Bay Area), Kerry (a junior at Miami University in Oxford, OH), and Kathy (a freshman at the University of Notre Dame).

Among his recreational interests, Policy is an avid jogger, chalking up about 25 miles per week.

He and the former Gail Marie Moretti were married during the 1991 offseason. They make their home in Palo Alto, CA.

Keith A. Simon—VICE PRESIDENT— BUSINESS OPERATIONS & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Keith A. Simon, in his 15th season with the 49ers, begins his fifth year as vice president for business operations and chief financial officer in 1993.

In his current position, Simon is responsible for all non-football business and provides financial guidance and support for all of the team's football-related activities.

He supervises all of the Niners' away-from-the-field departments, including: ticket sales/operations, public relations, community relations, luxury suite sales/operations, stadium operations, marketing, and promotions.

Simon, who joined the Niners' front office staff in '79, oversees the team's travel and lodging needs for both road and home games, and serves as liaison between the team's Santa Clara (CA) office and the DeBartolo Corporation headquarters in Youngstown, OH.

He reports directly to President Carmen Policy on all matters involving accounting and is involved in overall company finance and negotiations for the 49ers.

Prior to his '89 promotion to vice president for business operations and chief financial officer, he had served as the 49ers' business manager since 1979.

Simon's association with the DeBartolo Corporation dates back to '75, when he was hired as an accountant at the DeBartolo-owned Thistledown Racetrack in Cleveland, OH. He became the track's general manager in 1976.

Prior to that, Simon was chief accountant for the firm of Litton Industries in their Datalog Division (1969-70) in Denver, CO, and was the controller and chief financial officer for Greentree Communities (1971-75) in Sarasota, FL.

Born in Billings, MT (10-13-44), Keith played football and baseball at Billings High. He received his degree in business administration from the University of Montana in '68.

A boating, fishing, golf, and classic cars enthusiast, Keith and his wife, Debbie, have one son, Grant Christopher (2-25-88). The family lives in Saratoga, CA.

John E. McVay—VICE PRESIDENT— FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

John McVay, named Sporting News NFL Executive-of-the-Year in 1989, is in his 15th year with the 49ers — his fifth season as vice president for football administration.

McVay began his career with the 49ers in 1979 as the team's director of player personnel, was promoted to director of football operations ('80), and served as administrative vice president ('81) before being named vice president and general manager in 1983.

He came to the 49ers after three seasons (two and one-half as head coach) with the New York Giants (1976-78) and two years as the head coach and general manager of the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League, where his teams were 24-7 (1974-75).

His coaching career included nine years of high school ball in Ohio: three years at Lancaster High, one year at Franklin High, and a five-year stay (41-7) at Canton Central Catholic High.

From the prep ranks, he became an assistant on Duffy Daugherty's Michigan State staff (1962-64), before taking over at Dayton prior to joining the WFL.

He was head football coach (1965-73) and athletic director (1972-73) at Dayton, where he led the 1966 Flyers to their first winning grid season (8-2) in 10 years.

A native of Bellaire, OH, and a product of the famous high school football town of Massillon, OH, McVay was an All-Ohio center as a Massillon schoolboy.

An All-Midwest selection and two-time team MVP as a center at Miami University (known nationally as the "Cradle of Coaches") in Oxford, OH, he played for both Woody Hayes and Ara Parseghian. Hayes awarded McVay Miami's last available football scholarship, and John went on to become a four-year team captain for the Redskins. He is a member of that school's athletic Hall of Fame.

McVay's three sons all followed in his collegiate football footsteps. Jim, the Executive Director for college football's Hall of Fame Bowl in Tampa, FL, was a quarterback/safety at Dayton; John Jr. played safety for Miami; and Tim, who was captain at Indiana, also played safety.

John and his wife, Lee, live in Saratoga, CA.

Dwight Clark—COORDINATOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/PLAYER PERSONNEL

Dwight Clark, who assumed the title of coordinator of football operations and player personnel in 1992, begins his second season in that role with the 49ers in '93.

In his fifth season with the 49ers, Dwight spent two years as executive administrative assistant (1990-91), following one season as the team's marketing consultant (1989). He took on expanded responsibilities in his new role with the club in 1992.

Clark works directly with Vice President of Football Administration John McVay on business and player contract negotiations, among his other duties pertaining to football operations.

He scouts talent, negotiates and reviews player contracts, and oversees the team's scouting department, especially as it interacts with the coaching staff.

Additionally, he monitors office expenditures, and coordinates the Niners' spring mini-camps and summer training camp.

A 10th-round draft choice in '79, the 36-year-old Clark finished his nine-year career as the 49ers' all-time leading receiver with 506 catches, 6,750 receiving yards, and 48 touchdowns.

A true "big game" player, Clark always raised his level of performance in post-season action. He was a central character of the most memorable play in 49ers' history, making "the catch" that provided San Francisco with the winning points against the Dallas Cowboys in the 1981 NFC Championship Game and sent them on to Super Bowl XVI.

Born in Kingston, NC (1-8-57), "DC" was a secondary education (history) major at Clemson. Dwight and his wife, Ashley, have two children: Casey Gene (3-21-84) and Riley Edward (5-4-85) and are expecting their third child in September. The family lives in Menlo Park, CA.

Lisa DeBartolo —

DIRECTOR OF THE 49ERS FOUNDATION

Lisa DeBartolo begins her initial season with the club as Director of the San Francisco 49ers FOUNDATION.

As director of the Foundation, Lisa's duties and responsibilities will be to receive, monitor, and evaluate proposals and requests for contributions and grants. Additionally, she will create and produce special events and fundraising activities for the Foundation. Lisa will also lead in the review of the monthly, quarterly, and annual financial statement(s) and oversee the investment of funds on behalf of the Foundation.

A May 1992 graduate of St. Mary's (CA) College, Lisa comes to the 49ers with a wide range of experience in corporate business, having worked in a variety of capacities within the Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation. Her experiences included the day-to-day involvement in the operation of the Marie P. DeBartolo Foundation.

Most recently (1991), in addition to her contributions to the Marie P. DeBartolo Foundation, Lisa served as an assistant in the Corporation's legal department. She was involved in the management of insurance and non-insurance litigation for the DeBartolo Corporation and its subsidiaries. Other areas of responsibility included the review and approval of outside counsel legal fees, monitoring corporate litigation, and researching public access issues.

Prior to her work in legal matters pertaining to the Corporation, Lisa served in the marketing and communications department in 1988. Her duties consisted of coordinating media events, assisting in the production of publications, and the development of press releases as well as reorganizing the corporate library.

Aside from her experience at the DeBartolo Corporation, Lisa was active as a student at St. Mary's. She gained valuable familiarity in communications, contributed to The Collegian, the school's newspaper, and worked as a disc jockey for the on-campus radio station.

An art history and philosophy major, Lisa also tutored French for two years. She was a member of the French Club and Senior Ball Committee, and participated in intramural sports.

Born Lisa Marie DeBartolo (12-17-69) in Youngstown, OH, she is the oldest daughter of Edward J. and Candy DeBartolo. Lisa resides in the Bay Area.

49ers FOUNDATION

The 49ers FOUNDATION was established in July 1991. It is a not-for-profit organization founded by the San Francisco 49ers to provide grants and aid to charitable activities and causes of civic concern.

Lisa DeBartolo, with the support of its board of directors, heads the 49ers FOUNDATION and handles all the operational and administrative tasks necessary to maintain this outreach element of the team's community affairs.

The Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Foundation is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The San Francisco 49ers are committed to extending their community involvement and good will throughout the Bay Area and the 49ers FOUNDATION is one of many projects instituted to achieve this objective. The fund financially aides a wide variety of groups and organizations through grants.

It is the hope of the San Francisco 49ers to acknowledge and assist many of the worthy Bay Area charities. The foundation serves as an additional vehicle of monetary support to the efforts of those groups helping the needy.

Among those groups and organizations receiving Foundation grants during the last two years were: The Packard Children's Hospital; Outward Bound; Center for a New Generation; United Negro College Fund; Marty Lyons Foundation; Crippled Children's Society; ALS Foundation; Police Athletic League; Crime Prevention, Narcotics, Drugs; Educational Center; Bread of Life; Champs Foundation; and Catholic Charities.

Additionally, last season three players were chosen for each game to serve as team captains. Those captains were asked to select a charity to receive a grant. The amount of the grant was based on the total points scored each week by the team. The Foundation pledged $50 per point, with a minimum grant of $500.

The 49ers FOUNDATION accepts written requests for grants from public charities or foundations. All applicants must be exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Requests should be no more than two pages including:

- A brief description of your organization.
- What project will be funded through the grant.
- Who your other major funders are.

Additionally, enclose a copy of your IRS determination letter granting your organization tax-exempt status.

The letters of request must be submitted between Jan. 1 and April 30.

Send requests to: Lisa DeBartolo, Director, 49ers Foundation, c/o San Francisco 49ers, 4949 Centennial Boulevard, Santa Clara, CA 95054.

George Seifert — HEAD COACH

In just four seasons at the helm, George Seifert has established a pace that if endured will position him among the elite head coaches in NFL history. Seifert has already won 57 games (including postseason) during the previous four-year term, an average of 14 victories per season.

Last year Seifert recorded his 50th career victory, reaching that milestone faster than any other coach in NFL history. George needed just 63 games to reach the plateau, bettering the previous mark of 64 set by Paul Brown (see box opposite page).

Seifert has garnered a lofty .803 winning percentage in his 71 career games as head coach. That figure ranks as the best among active NFL coaches with 50-or-more games. However, more impressively is that among George's 14 career losses, only four have been by deficits of seven-or-more points.

Since assuming the head coaching duties, Seifert has experienced nearly unparalleled success. His '89 debut was nothing short of spectacular, as he became just the second rookie head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl (with Don McCafferty, Colts '70). Additionally, Seifert is the only coach to claim an NFC crown in his first year. Moreover, his 14 victories were more than any other rookie coach in NFL history.

George was named the 1989 NFL Coach-of-the-Year by several publications, including: Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest. He followed that with an encore selection of 1990 NFL Coach-of-the-Year by the Washington Touchdown Club, The Sporting News, and The National, among others.

After nine years as a 49ers' assistant coach (the last six as defensive coordinator), Seifert was named the team's head coach in January of 1989. He replaced Bill Walsh, becoming the 12th coach in 49ers' history, and the first native San Franciscan ever to coach the team.

Under his direction as defensive coordinator, the 49ers annually ranked among the leaders in the NFL. In 1987, they claimed the top ranking for all NFL defensive units (the first time in history that San Francisco led the League in fewest total yards allowed). Besides being first in total defense, San Francisco also was No. 1 in passing defense and fifth in rushing defense.

In 1988, the Niners were third in total defense, third in rushing defense, and eighth in pass defense, while holding their opponents under 100 yards rushing eight times during the season.

George joined the Niners' coaching staff as defensive backfield coach in '80, following 15 years in the collegiate ranks.

He began his coaching career in 1964 as a graduate assistant at Utah, after a six-month tour of duty with the U.S. Army. An offensive guard and linebacker at Utah, Seifert was recommended for that graduate assistant post by his former Utah roommate and teammate, Lynn Stiles, when Stiles moved up from that position to a full-time assistant at Utah.

In '65, Seifert was named head coach at Westminster College in Salt Lake City, UT, before moving to assistant positions at Iowa (1966) and Oregon (1967-71). He joined Stanford's staff (1972-74) as secondary coach, and transformed the defensive backfield into the Pac-8 Conference's best in 1972 and 1973.

George left Stanford in '75 to become head coach at Cornell (1975-76), but returned to Stanford to join Walsh's staff as secondary coach in 1977. The Cardinal pass defense was second in the Pac-10 in both '78 and 1979.

In '80, he joined Walsh again, this time with the 49ers as secondary coach.

A San Francisco native, Seifert grew up in 'The City's' Mission District and graduated from Polytechnic High across the street from the 49ers' old home field at Kezar Stadium. He played offensive tackle, end, and linebacker on Poly's football team...and enjoyed one high school benefit of Poly students serving as ushers at Kezar for 49ers' games.

One highlight to Seifert's 1990 offseason was being honored with the second annual ALS "Iron Man" Award. Inaugurated in '89 by the ALS Research Foundation of San Francisco, the award is presented annually to the Bay Area sports figure who best exemplifies the spirit and determination of former New York Yankee great Lou Gehrig.

George and his wife, Linda, have two children (Eve and Jason) and live in Los Altos, CA. A 1963 graduate of Utah, George was a zoology major with interests in wildlife management and teaching.

Born January 22, 1940, Seifert celebrated his 49th birthday (in Miami, FL) during San Francisco's 20-16 Super Bowl XXIII win over Cincinnati in 1989, and his 50th birthday (in New Orleans, LA) in '90, during the week before the Niners' 55-10 Super Bowl XXIV victory over Denver.

NFL CAREER RECORD ENTERING 1993: 71 games (including 5-2 post-season mark)...57-14 for an .803 winning percentage.

1993 COACHES AND STAFF

Jerry Attaway—PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

Jerry Attaway, in his 11th season as coordinator for physical development, supervises the team's weight/exercise training and the dietary/nutritional needs of each player.

Attaway came to the 49ers following five years in a similar capacity at Southern California (1978-82).

During his first three years at Southern Cal, he was the assistant offensive line coach, as well as coordinator for physical development.

A product of UC-Davis and Sacramento State, Jerry transferred to Sacramento State after an injury ended his UC-Davis football career.

Collegiately, he served as an assistant coach at UC-Davis (1970-71), the College of Idaho (1972-74), and Utah State (1975-77), prior to his USC coaching stint.

After earning a degree in physical education and biology from Sacramento State in 1972, Attaway received his master's of education with an emphasis in guidance and counseling from the College of Idaho in '74. He often conducts health workshops that focus on weight loss and appearance.

Born in Susanville, CA (1-3-46), Jerry and his wife, Cheryl, live in San Jose, CA.

Attaway's coaching background: 1970-71 (UC-Davis), 1972-74 (College of Idaho), 1975-77 (Utah State), 1978-82 (Southern California), 1983-93 (49ers).

Dwaine Board—DEFENSIVE LINE ASSISTANT

One of the 49ers' all-time sack leaders, Dwaine Board is in his fourth season as a defensive line assistant—his second year in a full-time capacity.

Board works primarily with the team's nickel defense and the "elephant" spot, a combination lineman-linebacker, the position he played during his 10 seasons with San Francisco.

A member of three world championship 49ers' teams, he recorded 61 career sacks from 1979-88 (plus eight in postseason). His four tackles, two sacks, and constant pressure in Super Bowl XIX, earned him Defensive Player-of-the-Game honors in San Francisco's 38-16 win over Miami.

A graduate of Rocky Mount (VA) High, Board was a three-time All-America selection at North Carolina A&T and a fifth-round draft choice of the Steelers in 1979.

Following his release by Pittsburgh, Dwaine signed with the 49ers and registered a team-leading seven sacks as a rookie in '79. He retired following the '88 campaign after joining the Saints at mid-season.

Born in Rocky Mount, VA (11-29-56), "Pee Wee" and his wife, Lynne, have two daughters: Camille (6-11-89) and Allie (1-21-91). They live in Redwood City, CA.

Board's coaching background: 1990-93 (49ers).

Neal Dahlen—ADMINISTRATOR/FINANCIAL LIAISON

Neal Dahlen, who enters his 15th year with the 49ers, is in his second season as coaching administrator and financial liaison.

Dahlen works directly with coach George Seifert on player personnel and management matters, monitors financial affairs relating to player personnel, and acts as the coaching staff liaison with the administrative staff.

Additionally, Dahlen is responsible for acquiring free agent players, negotiating player contracts, and developing game plan scouting reports for the defensive coaching staff.

Well groomed for this position with his 30 years of football coaching and administrative experience, Dahlen has been associated with the 49ers since joining the club as a part-time assistant to the coaching staff in 1979.

In '84, he took on full-time duties as director of research and development, and served as the team's coordinator of football operations prior to his current position.

A physical education major at San Jose State, Dahlen graduated in 1963 and earned his master's in '64.

Born in Spokane, WA (4-13-40), Neal and his wife, Nancy, live in San Carlos, CA. They have four grown children (Laurie, Sherri, Christy and Tim).

Jeff Fisher—DEFENSIVE BACKS

Jeff Fisher begins his second season as the 49ers' defensive backs coach.

A native Southern Californian, Jeff was an All-America DB at Taft High in Woodland Hills, CA. He attended USC, was All-Academic Pac-10 as a senior, and played alongside future all-pros Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith, and Joey Browner.

A seventh-round draft choice by Chicago (177th overall) in '81, he played four seasons with the Bears (1981-84) and still holds records for most punt returns in two categories—Game: 8 at Detroit, 12-16-84; and season: 58, 1984, and most punt return yards (season-509, 1981).

As an injured reserve member of the 1985 world championship team (Super Bowl XX), Fisher gained valuable experience assisting the Bears' defensive staff while he sat out the year with an ankle injury.

Jeff moved to Philadelphia with Buddy Ryan in 1986 as defensive backs coach (1986-88) and defensive coordinator (1989-90), prior to joining the Rams in '91 as defensive coordinator.

Under Fisher's guidance, the Eagles' defense ranked first in the NFL in interceptions (30, '89), first in sacks (62, '89), first against the rush (169, '90), and second in sacks (46, '90).

Born in Culver City, CA (2-25-58), Jeff earned his bachelor's degree in public administration from USC in '80. He and his wife, Juli, have three children: sons Brandon (6-19-87), Trenton (6-19-92) and a daughter Tara (1-27-89). The family lives in Danville, CA.

Carl Jackson—RUNNING BACKS

Carl Jackson begins his second season as running backs coach after taking over for Ray Sherman, who began directing the 49ers' wide receivers in '92.

Jackson came to San Francisco from Iowa where he was offensive coordinator (1989-91) and running backs coach (1979-91).

The '91 Hawkeyes averaged 407 yards a game (3rd in the Big-10), compiled a 10-1-1 record and tied Brigham Young in the Holiday Bowl (Iowa's 10th postseason game in Jackson's 13 seasons). In '90, Iowa led the Big-10 in total offense (429.6) and scoring (35.6) on its way to an 8-4 record and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

After a 14-year career (1963-76) in the Texas prep ranks, Jackson joined North Texas State as running backs coach (1976-78). He moved to Iowa (1979-91), coaching the running backs and kickers before being appointed offensive coordinator in 1989.

During his tenure at Iowa, Carl worked with Reggie Roby, Ronnie Harmon, Kevin Harmon, Rick Bayless, and Nick Bell, among others.

An Academic All-America, he was a two-time all-conference quarterback at Prairie View A&M. He majored in physical education, earning his bachelor's degree in '63 and his master's in 1975.

Born in Bay City, TX (8-16-40), Carl and his wife, Doris, have two grown children (Carl Jr. and Cheryl) and live in San Jose, CA.

Jackson's coaching background: 1963-76 (high school), 1976-78 (North Texas State), 1979-91 (Iowa), 1992-93 (49ers).

Steve Little—PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANT

Steve Little, considered one of the top collegiate strength and conditioning coaches in the nation, joins the staff of the San Francisco 49ers as a physical development assistant in 1993.

A native of Peoria, IL, Little will serve as an assistant to the 49ers Coordinator for Physical Development Jerry Attaway.

Little played football from 1981-84 at Iowa State, then spent parts of three seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Detroit Lions, and Atlanta Falcons. After a brief stint at Bradley University as its strength coach, he joined the Purdue staff as assistant strength coach. Following two seasons in West Lafayette (1988-89), Little was hired by Temple University as the head strength and conditioning coach. He later returned to Purdue in March of 1991, assuming the top duties there.

He and his wife, Carla, have two daughters: Kristin (6-10-90) and Kelsey (1-24-92). The family lives in the South Bay.

Little's coaching background: 1987 (Bradley), 1988-89 & 1991-92 (Purdue), 1990 (Temple), 1993 (49ers).

Alan Lowry—SPECIAL TEAMS

Alan Lowry, who has 12 years of NFL experience, begins his second season as San Francisco's special teams coach.

Alan came to the 49ers with a wealth of coaching experience on both the collegiate and professional levels.

After graduating from Texas as both an All-SWC defensive back and quarterback, he served as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech (1974).

The following season he moved to Wyoming (1975), before serving in the Dallas Cowboys' scouting department in '76.

He returned to Texas in 1977 for five seasons as defensive backfield coach (1977-81), tutoring such former NFL standouts as Johnnie Johnson (Rams) and Ricky Churchman (49ers).

Lowry's NFL coaching experience began at Dallas in '82 as special teams coach (1982-87) and receivers coach (1988-90). In 1991 he was the Buccaneers' special teams and tight ends coach.

Born in Erving, TX (11-21-50), Alan and his wife, Donna, have two daughters: Marta (8-22-83) and Lindsay (4-3-88). They live in Danville, CA.

John Marshall—DEFENSIVE LINE

John Marshall, who has coached professional football for 14 years, is in his fifth season with the 49ers as defensive line coach.

Marshall's NFL coaching career began in Green Bay, coaching special teams (1980) and linebackers (1981-82). He moved to Atlanta as defensive coordinator (1983-85) and to the Colts as defensive line coach (1986-88), prior to joining the 49ers.

An 11-year veteran of the collegiate ranks, Marshall entered coaching after an injury cut short his Washington State playing career. His first coaching position came at Hancock J.C. (1967).

He assisted 49ers' Head Coach George Seifert, who was the head freshman coach at Oregon (1968), then took over the post when Seifert moved up to coach the Ducks' defensive backs (1969-71).

Marshall also coached the offensive line at Oregon (1972-76) and the linebackers at Southern California (1977-79). During his USC tenure, the Trojans won two Rose Bowls, an Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, and a national championship ('78).

Born in Arroyo Grande, CA (10-2-45), John earned his physical education degree from Oregon ('69). He and his wife, Becky, have two daughters: Sara (2-13-74) and Meg (8-13-75), and live in Pleasanton, CA.

Bobb McKittrick—OFFENSIVE LINE

As Bobb McKittrick enters his 23rd season in the NFL, 15th with San Francisco as offensive line coach, he guides a talented and experienced group in 1993.

McKittrick has been coaching professional football since '71 when he was an assistant with the Rams (1971-72).

He took a sabbatical from football in 1973 to do graduate work at Oregon State before rejoining the NFL at San Diego (1974-78).

Bobb began his coaching career in 1961 as an assistant at Oregon State (1961-64) after three years as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps (1958-61). He also coached collegiately at UCLA (1965-70).

McKittrick has been associated with eight bowl games during his football playing and coaching career: four Super Bowls (XVI, XIX, XXIII, and XXIV) with San Francisco, three Rose Bowls (1957 as an Oregon State player, '65 as a Beaver coach, and 1966 as a UCLA coach), and the '62 Liberty Bowl as an Oregon State coach.

Born in Baker, OR (12-29-35), Bobb is an Oregon State graduate with a bachelor's degree in agriculture (1958) and a master's of education ('78). He and his wife, Teckla, have two grown sons (Ladd and Mike) and live in San Mateo, CA.

McKittrick's coaching background: 1961-64 (Oregon State), 1965-70 (UCLA), 1971-72 (Los Angeles Rams), 1974-78 (San Diego Chargers), 1979-93 (49ers).

Bill McPherson—DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

One of the most respected teachers in the game, Bill McPherson is in his 16th year of coaching in the NFL.

In his fifth season as defensive coordinator, Bill has served as linebackers coach, defensive line coach, and coordinator during his tenure with the 49ers.

A defensive tackle at Santa Clara in the early '50s, McPherson began coaching in 1956 at his high school alma mater, San Jose's Bellarmine Prep (1956-62), following U.S. Army service in Korea.

He later was the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Santa Clara for 12 years (1963-74) before moving to UCLA as defensive line coach (1975-77).

At UCLA, Bill worked with Dick Vermeil, for whom he later served as linebackers' coach with the Philadelphia Eagles (1978) for one year, before joining the 49ers (1979-92).

"Mac" was inducted into Santa Clara's Athletic Hall-of-Fame as a player and coach (1984) and was appointed to the University's Board of Fellows in 1989. He holds a business degree from Santa Clara ('54) and a teacher's certification (secondary degree) from San Jose State ('58).

Born in Santa Clara, CA (10-24-31), Bill and his wife, Elsie, have five grown children: Michael, Claire, Joanne, Marianne and Patrick. They live in San Jose, CA.

McPherson's coaching background: 1956-62 (high school), 1963-74 (Santa Clara), 1975-77 (UCLA), 1978 (Philadelphia Eagles), 1979-93 (49ers).

Brian Pariani—OFFENSIVE COACHES ASSISTANT

Brian Pariani, who is in his fourth season with the 49ers, begins his third year as the team's offensive coaches assistant.

Pariani works directly with the offensive coaches and quarterbacks, assisting in daily practices and helping with upcoming game plans. Before assuming his current position, he served as a scouting assistant in 1990.

After earning his political science degree from UCLA in 1989, Pariani served as a grad assistant helping with the Bruins' offense during the '89 season.

Born in San Francisco, CA (7-2-65), Pariani attended Marin Catholic (CA) High, where he participated in football, baseball, and basketball. He is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

Pariani's coaching background: 1991-93 (49ers).

Mike Shanahan—OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

Mike Shanahan, who orchestrated the NFL's No. 1 offense in 1992, is in his second season as San Francisco's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Mike, who began his coaching career at Oklahoma (1975-76), also coached collegiately at Northern Arizona ('77), Eastern Illinois (1978), Minnesota ('79), and Florida (1980-83). He began his NFL experience at Denver as the wide receivers coach ('84) and offensive coordinator (1985-87).

In 1988, Shanahan was named head coach of the L.A. Raiders and improved them from five wins in '87 to 7-9 in his inaugural season. After starting 1-3 in '89, however, he was relieved of his duties.

Mike re-joined the Broncos (Week 7 - Oct. 16, 1989) as quarterbacks coach (1989-90), before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1991.

A physical education major at Eastern Illinois, he earned his bachelor's degree in 1974 and his master's in '75.

Born in Oak Park, IL (8-24-52), Shanahan grew up in Franklin Park, IL. He and his wife, Peggy, have two children: Kyle (12-14-79) and Krystal (2-28-82).

49ERS' ASSISTANTS NOW HEAD COACHES

A number of former 49ers' assistant coaches are head coaches in the NFL, including current San Francisco headman George Seifert, who was a 49ers' defensive assistant (1980-88). Others include: N.Y. Jets' Bruce Coslet (Florida), Minnesota's Dennis Green (1979 & 1986-'88), Green Bay's Mike Holmgren (1986-'91) and Tampa Bay's Sam Wyche (1979-'82).

Ray Sherman—WIDE RECEIVERS

Ray Sherman, who is in his third year with the 49ers, begins his second season as wide receivers coach after spending his initial season (1991) as the team's running backs coach.

He was the assistant head coach/offense with the Atlanta Falcons in '90, prior to joining the Niners staff.

A standout wide receiver at Oakland High and Laney J.C. (where he was a JuCo All-America in 1970 and '71), Sherman transferred to Fresno State prior to finishing his degree at San Jose State.

Ray began his coaching career with the Spartans in '74, while working towards his SJSU bachelor's degree in education (1975) and served as a graduate assistant at Cal in '75.

Sherman's first full-time coaching assignment came at Michigan State (1976-77), and prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, he also coached at Wake Forest (1978-80), California (1981), Purdue (1982-85), and Georgia (1986-87).

His NFL experience began at Houston in 1988 as running backs coach. In '89, Ray switched to receivers coach with the Oilers and moved to Atlanta for the 1990 season.

Born in Berkeley, CA (11-27-51), Ray and his wife, Yvette, have two children: Ray II (8-29-88) and Erica (7-20-91). They live in Dublin, CA.

Mike Solari—TIGHT ENDS/ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Mike Solari, who joined the 49ers' staff in 1992, begins his second season as the club's tight end/assistant offensive line coach.

After graduating from San Diego State in '76, the 38-year-old Solari spent two years coaching high school and junior college before accepting a position at U.S. International University in 1979.

In '80, Solari moved to Boise State and helped guide the Broncos to the NCAA Division 1-AA national championship. After assistant duties at Cincinnati (1981-82) and Kansas (1983-85), he served as the offensive coordinator at Pitt in 1986.

Solari's NFL experience began at Dallas in 1987 as assistant offensive line coach and added the duties of special teams coach during his tenure there. He spent '89 as offensive line coach for the Phoenix Cardinals, prior to joining Alabama's staff in 1990.

Born in Daly City, CA (1-16-55), Mike and his wife, Patti, have three children: daughters Tamara (2-11-85) and Stephanie (4-8-87) and son Michael (8-2-88). They live in Pleasanton, CA.

Eric Wright—DEFENSIVE BACKS ASSISTANT

Eric Wright, who served as a part-time defensive assistant in 1991, is in his second season as a full-time defensive backs assistant.

A native of East St. Louis, IL, Wright prepped at Assumption High there. A three-year starter at Missouri, he was named All-America as a junior and honorable mention All-America as a senior.

One of only five players to take part in all four 49ers' Super Bowl championships, Eric was a second round draft pick in 1981. He was named to the Pro Bowl following the '84 season.

His best year, however, may have been 1983, when he had a career-high 80 tackles, led the team in interception return yards (164), and recorded seven interceptions (including two for TDs).

His finest hour in '83 came when he recorded four solo tackles and picked off three passes for 78 yards and two scores in leading the 49ers to a 48-17 victory at Minnesota (9-8-83).

He finished his 10-year NFL career No. 9 in Niners' history with 18 interceptions (256 yards, 14.2 average, and two TDs).

Born in East St. Louis, IL (4-18-59), Eric lives in San Jose, CA. He has two children: daughter Erika (5-5-85) and son Aven (1-20-87).

Wright's coaching background: 1991-93 (49ers).

Bob Zeman—LINEBACKERS

Bob Zeman is in his 25th grid campaign (including five collegiate seasons) and fifth as San Francisco's linebackers coach. He has 19 years of NFL coaching experience with four different clubs.

After scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988, Zeman returned to San Francisco in 1989. He was one of the 49ers' regional scouts in 1987.

Captain of Wisconsin's 1959 Big Ten champions, Bob began his coaching career with Northwestern (1968-69), moved back to Wisconsin for one year (1970), and entered the NFL ranks in 1971 with the Oakland Raiders, coaching defensive backs (1971-77).

He served as linebackers coach with Denver (1978-82) and defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Buffalo (1983), before rejoining the Raiders in L.A. in '84 as linebackers coach (1984-86).

As an athlete, Bob played for San Diego (1960-61), the Broncos (1962-64), and the Chargers again (1965-66).

Born in Geneva, IL (2-22-37), Bob grew up in Wheaton, IL. He and his wife, Kathy, have four grown children: (Clarke, Eddie, Don, and Jennifer) and live in Boulder Creek, CA.

Zeman's coaching background: 1968-69 (Northwestern), 1970 (Wisconsin), 1971-77 & 1984-86 (Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders), 1978-82 (Denver Broncos), 1983 (Buffalo Bills), 1989-93 (49ers).

Bronco Hinek—EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Bronco Hinek, in his 11th year with the club, enters his 10th season as the 49ers' equipment manager in 1993.

Bronco, whose last name is pronounced "Hen-ick", joined the Niners in '83 following 14 seasons with the San Diego Chargers. He spent one season (1983) as assistant equipment manager to Chico Norton before taking over in '84.

Hinek learned his trade while helping his father, Frank, at Marquette University and with the Oakland Raiders (1960-62).

He officially got into the profession as an equipment assistant for two summers with the Los Angeles Rams (1968-69), before joining the Chargers on a full-time basis. Bronco was the Chargers' chief clubhouse attendant for four seasons (1969-72), and served as their assistant equipment manager for 10 years (1973-82).

Born in Milwaukee, WI (6-16-51), the widowed Hinek married Trish Bernie (3-19-59—12-9-85) of Moraga, CA, in July, '83. He is single and lives in Belmont, CA.

Ted Walsh—ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Ted Walsh, in his 15th season with the team, enters his ninth year as the 49ers' full-time assistant equipment manager.

Walsh, an assistant 49ers' equipment staffer since 1979, has ties to Major League Baseball. He worked spring training with the Milwaukee Brewers (1982-86) as a clubhouse assistant prior to being hired full-time by the 49ers, and his cousin is Tom Candiotti, a pitcher with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Ted designed and patented "Quick Cleat," a tool that is used by more than 300 colleges and professional teams to change cleats on football shoes.

Born in Concord, CA (2-8-63), Walsh attended Concord High and received his associate of arts degree from Diablo Valley JC in '85. He is single and lives in San Jose, CA.

49ers in the Hall of Fame

Since joining the National Football League in 1950, the 49ers have seen seven former players and one head coach enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 1993, Bill Walsh, who guided the 49ers to three Super Bowl championships in 10 years, entered the Hall of Fame.

The following are San Francisco's inductees, their years of service with the Niners, and the year they were enshrined.

Lindsay McLean—TRAINER

Lindsay McLean, an athletic trainer for 33 years, enters his 15th season with the 49ers in 1993.

The team's chief trainer since '82, Lindsay joined the 49ers as co-trainer in 1979, following 11 years as head trainer at Michigan (1968-78).

Besides working with Michigan's athletes (1961-62 and 1968-78), McLean also served as head trainer at UC-Santa Barbara (1963-64) and San Jose State (1965-67). He was named United States Collegiate Trainer-of-the-Year in '76.

A Vanderbilt graduate (1960), Lindsay received his certification in physical therapy from Herman Hospital in Houston, TX, in '61. He entered the training profession as an assistant at Michigan prior to joining the UC-Santa Barbara staff.

McLean served as chairman of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Certification Committee for 10 years, was the U.S. Olympic Team trainer for the '76 Winter Games, and was inducted into the NATA's Hall of Fame in 1988. He currently is in his eighth year as a member of the grants and scholarship committee for the NATA. He recently was appointed chairman of the Distinguished Fellows Award Committee for the NATA.

Born in Nashville, TN (6-28-38), Lindsay is single and lives in Redwood City, CA.

Ray Tufts—ASSISTANT TRAINER

Ray Tufts is in his 10th year with the 49ers, his seventh as a full-time staffer in 1993.

Prior to his promotion to assistant trainer ('91), Ray served as a summer camp assistant (1984-86) and a training staff assistant (1987-90).

A native of Anderson, CA, Tufts is a Cal State-Sacramento physical education graduate (1987), with an emphasis in sports medicine. He received his National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) certification in '87 and is a member of the NATA District VIII Athletic Trainers' Association.

Tufts, who enjoys speaking to special interest groups during the offseason, is an avid motor sports enthusiast who follows NASCAR and Indy racing.

Born in Mountain View, CA (9-28-64), where he and his wife, Jennifer, live.

Scottie Patton—TRAINING ASSISTANT

Scottie Patton enters his third season as a training staff assistant with the 49ers in 1993.

Patton earned both his National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) certificate and his Appalachian State physical education/exercise science degree (with emphasis in sports medicine) in 1990. He transferred from South Carolina to San Jose State where he is currently working on his master's in biomechanics.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Patton worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at South Carolina (1990-91). He was a student trainer at Appalachian State (1986-90) and a summer camp assistant with the Niners in 1988 and '89.

Born August 10, 1968, in Gastonia, NC, he is single and lives in San Jose, CA.

Allan Webb—DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

In his 11th season as director of pro personnel, Allan Webb handles the 49ers' research of player movement within the professional football ranks and scouts upcoming opponents to assist game plan formulation.

Webb joined the Niners in 1983, following four years as the director of pro personnel with Cleveland (1979-82), and prior to that, he served on John McVay's coaching staff with the N.Y. Giants (1972-78). He went to the Giants as a scout and took over offensive backfield coaching duties two years later.

A defensive back with the Giants (1961-65), Webb was a Little All-America pick at Arnold College in Connecticut (1952) as both a running back and a defensive back. He had a try-out with the L.A. Rams in 1955 after two years of service in the Navy.

Allan has two grown children (Lisa and Marc) and resides with his wife, Fran, in Foster City, CA.

Vinny Cerrato—DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Vinny Cerrato, in his third season with the 49ers, was named director of college scouting in 1992.

His promotion came after one season as the team's national scout. Prior to joining the 49ers, the 34-year-old Cerrato served as the football recruiting coordinator under Lou Holtz at Notre Dame (1986-90). During that period the Irish played in four bowl games and won a national championship ('88).

A 1982 graduate of Iowa State, he lettered at quarterback and wide receiver all four years and earned one track letter for the Cyclones.

Cerrato worked three years as a graduate assistant at Minnesota (1983-85) and was appointed recruiting coordinator for the Gophers in '85, before moving to Notre Dame (1986).

Born in Flushing, NY (1-4-60), Vinny grew up in Albert Lea, MN, where he ran track and was selected all-state in hockey and football. He lives in Palo Alto, CA.

John Brunner—EAST AND MIDWEST REGION SCOUT

John Brunner, who joined the 49ers as an area scout in 1992, begins his second season with the club in '93.

He joins the 49ers after 12 years as an NFL assistant coach and scout: Detroit (running backs coach, 1980-82), Green Bay (running backs coach, '83), Tampa Bay (offensive coordinator, 1984), New England (scout, 1985-86), and Minnesota (running backs coach, 1987-91).

John played college football at Maryland (1955-56) and East Stroudsburg State (1958-59). After earning his master's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg (1960), he coached high school and college football for 20 years, holding positions at Middletown (NY) High (1960-66), Villanova (1967-69), Temple (1970-73 & 1977-79), and Princeton (1974-75).

Born in Perkasie, PA (9-6-37), Brunner and his wife, Pat, have seven children (former NFL quarterback Scott, Jack, Penny, Jan, Jeff, Todd, and Mark) and have homes in Wisconsin and Florida.

Mike Faulkner—WEST REGION SCOUT

Mike Faulkner enters his second season as an area scout after joining the 49ers in 1992.

A two-way performer (quarterback and defensive back) at West Virginia Tech (1965-69), his coaching career began in the West Virginia prep ranks (1972-73).

Faulkner has 14 years of NFL experience with Washington (administrative assistant/scout, 1974-78), N.Y. Giants (special assistant, '80), N.Y. Jets (assistant coach/administrator, 1983-89), and Cleveland (defensive backs, 1990).

Additionally, he coached with Toronto (1979) and Montreal ('82) of the CFL and collegiately at Eastern Illinois (1981).

Born in Cameron, WV (3-27-47), Mike and his wife, Heather, live in Austin, TX.

Jim Gruden—SOUTH REGION SCOUT

Jim Gruden, a veteran of 25 professional and collegiate football seasons, is in his seventh year with San Francisco.

Gruden came to the 49ers in 1987 following five seasons with Tampa Bay as director of player personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

Born in Cleveland, OH, Jim joined the NFL ranks in '82, after 15 years of assistant collegiate coaching at Heidelberg (OH) College (1966-68), Dayton (1969-72), Indiana (1973-77), and Notre Dame (1978-80). While at Dayton, he was an assistant coach under John McVay (49ers' Vice President-Football Administration).

Gruden and his wife, Kathy, have three grown sons (Jim, Jay, who graduated in 1988 as Louisville's all-time leading passer, and John, a Green Bay assistant).

Tommy Hart—SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS SCOUT

After nine years as an assistant coach, Tommy Hart begins his second season as a national special assignments scout for the 49ers in 1993.

A Niners' defensive line assistant since '83, Hart's duties include general scouting with an emphasis on the defensive line.

Tommy, who attended Ballard Hudson High, earned all-conference honors three years and was named second team NAIA All-America as a senior at Morris Brown College.

During the 1993 offseason, Hart was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

A 10th-round draft choice by the 49ers in 1968, Hart emerged as one of the team's top defensive linemen, registering a career-high 17 sacks in '72, and a team-record six sacks against the Rams in 1976, on his way to the '77 Pro Bowl. The all-pro defensive end played for San Francisco (1968-77), Chicago (1978-79), and New Orleans ('80).

Born in Macon, GA (11-11-44), Tommy and his wife, Cherrie Ann, have four daughters (Sebrina, Ywakita, Tanya, and Crystal) and live in Redwood City, CA, where they operate Tommy Hart's Sport Store.

Oscar Lofton—EAST AND MIDEAST REGION SCOUT

Oscar Lofton, who joined the 49ers' scouting staff in 1992, begins his second season with the club.

His football background includes six years as a scout for the National Football Scouting Combine (1986-92) and coaching stints at Holy Cross (1963-66), Hammond (LA) High (1967-73), and Tulane (1973-79).

A three-sport athlete (football, basketball, and track) at Southeastern Louisiana, Lofton is a member of that school's Hall of Fame. He received his SLU master's degree in physical education in 1966 and served SLU as athletic director (1979) and head coach (1980-85). He played three seasons (1960-61 & '63) for the Boston Patriots, missing the 1962 campaign while in the U.S. Army.

Born in McCall Creek, MS (4-21-38), Oscar and his wife, Billie Jean, have three sons (Kelly, Andy, and Kyle) and live in Hammond, LA.

Neil Schmidt—SOUTH REGION SCOUT

In his 20th and final year as an area scout, Neil Schmidt has become the senior member of the 49ers' scouting department.

A two-sport performer at Purdue (1948-50), Schmidt was a starting running back and defensive back in football and a starting guard in basketball.

Neil, who spent three years (1971-74) with BLESTO's NFL Scouting Combine prior to joining the Niners in 1975, earned his master's degree from Bowling Green in 1958 and coached football on the high school and college levels for 21 years, including 12 years at the University of Miami (FL) as offensive coordinator.

Born in Reinfield, Russia (7-3-27), he moved to the United States when he was two years old. He and his wife, Rosemary, have two grown children (Diane and Randall) and make their home in Atlanta, GA.

Bob Whitman—SOUTH REGION SCOUT

Bob Whitman, in his 11th season on the 49ers' scouting staff, gives San Francisco more than 36 years of scouting and coaching experience on the collegiate and professional levels.

A college quarterback at Tulane, Bob coached at St. Francisville (LA) High; was a junior college head coach and athletic director at Perkinson, MS; was an assistant at Tulane (1952-61); and coached at East Jefferson High in Metairie, LA (1961-67).

Prior to joining the 49ers, Bob spent 16 seasons with the New Orleans Saints as a scout (1968-70), chief scout (1971-73), and director of scouting/player personnel (1974-82).

Bob and his wife, Miriam, have eight children: Bob Jr., Judy, Mickey, Gerald, Wayne, Kenneth, Joan, and Laura, and live in Metairie, LA.

Billy Wilson—WEST REGION SCOUT

One of San Francisco's all-time great players, Billy Wilson is in his 14th season as a regional scout with the organization.

The San Jose product played 10 seasons with the 49ers (1951-60), racking up 5,902 yards and 49 touchdowns. He led the NFL in pass receptions three times (1954, 1956-57) and was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (1955-60).

Billy has had two tours of duty as a coach with the Niners, tutoring the wide receivers in 1961-62 and 1964-67.

Wilson and his wife, Shirley, have four grown children (Wynn, Gregg, Holly, and Tracy) and live in San Jose, CA.

POSSIBLE NFL RECORDS REACHABLE IN 1993

* Steve Young has won the NFL passing title the last two seasons to tie the League mark. He can set a new League standard by leading all passers in 1993. He is currently tied with Cecil Isbell (G.B., 1941-42), Milt Plum (Cleveland, 1960-61), Ken Anderson (Cincinnati, 1974-75, 1981-82), and Roger Staubach (Dallas, 1978-79).

* Jerry Rice has 39 games with 100 or more yards receiving and needs 12 games to break Don Maynard's NFL record of 50.

* Jerry Rice has seven seasons with 1,000 yards receiving, and needs one more 1,000 yard receiving season to tie Steve Largent's NFL record of eight.

* Jerry Rice is tied with Lance Alworth for the League mark with seven consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. With 1,000 yards receiving in 1993, Jerry will set an NFL record.

* Jerry Rice has five games with 100 or more yards receiving in the postseason, tying him with John Stallworth for the League mark. With one playoff game of 100 yards receiving, Rice can establish a new standard.

Steve Young—36th Annual Len Eshmont Award Winner

Steve Young won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, the team's most prestigious annual honor, in 1992.

Young collected the most votes in the annual secret ballot by his teammates. He was the 38th recipient of the award, which was first given to quarterback Y.A. Tittle in 1957.

The former BYU quarterback joins Tittle (1957), John Brodie (1965) and Joe Montana (1986 & 1989) as the only 49ers' quarterbacks to capture the award.

The award is given each year to the Niner who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont. A player from the original 1946 Forty Niners' team, Eshmont died in 1957.

Here are the 49ers' annual Len Eshmont Award winners since its inception in '57:

FREE AGENCY CREDITED SEASONS

Under the new Collective Bargaining Agreement, a credited season will be determined by the number of combined game credits (or the equivalent in pay) that a player accumulates on any of the following three lists:

Club List	No. of Games Needed for a "Credited Season"
Active/Inactive	6
Reserve/Injured	6

To qualify for a credited season, a player must have reported to training camp by: 30 days prior to the start of the regular season if he is a veteran under contract.

CATEGORIES OF PLAYERS IN FREE AGENCY SYSTEM

There are three categories of players under the free agency system:

- A. Exclusive Rights — Years 1-3
- B. Restricted Free Agents — Years 4-5 in 1993
- C. Unrestricted Free Agents — Years 6 and up in 1993, any player who has cleared waivers or was undrafted

NEW IN '93

THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT

The National Football League's new collective bargaining agreement has ushered in a new era. There are many changes from previous procedures. Some of those effecting the conduct of the season are highlighted below.

ROSTER SIZE AND INJURED RESERVE

NFL teams will reduce their rosters to 47 players during the final cutdown on August 30th as they have in the past. Then teams will be able to claim, sign or recall up to six players for a base roster of 53 players.

Each week teams will reduce their roster to 45 players (plus a third quarterback) as they have done in the past. Teams must reduce to 49 players by 7 p.m. EST on Friday, then declare four more players as inactive or third quarterbacks on the day of the game.

There is no longer an Injured Reserve list where players can be recalled to active duty. Players with severe injuries can be placed on Injured Reserve, but if so designated they can no longer participate in a game or practice with their team for the rest of the year.

There will be a practice squad for up to five players with similar procedures for activation as in the past. Only players who do not have an accrued season of NFL experience are eligible for a team's practice squad.

RULE CHANGES FROM THE MARCH NFL OWNERS' MEETING

— A team now has 40 seconds to put the ball in play after the referee's whistle. In the past, a 45-second clock has been utilized. This change is expected to increase the number of plays in a game.

— Offensive pass interference penalties have been reduced to 10 yards from the spot of the foul. For an ineligible player downfield on a pass play, the penalty is now five yards. On defensive interference calls, a first down will continue to be awarded to the offense at the spot of the infraction.

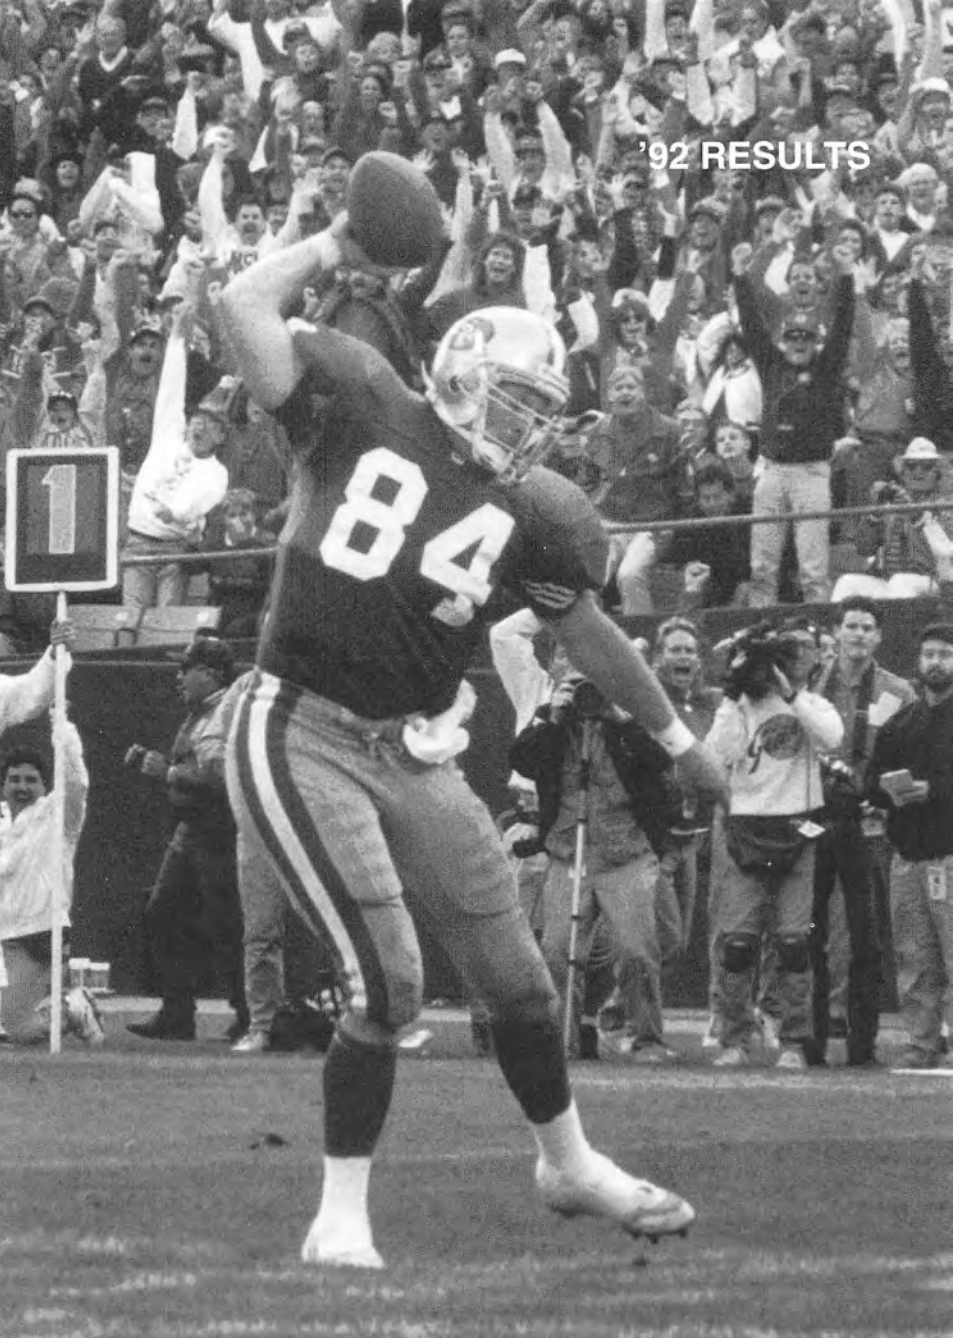

— A defensive player may now advance a backward pass if he recovers the pass after it touches the ground. In the past, only an offensive player could advance a backward pass.

POSTSEASON COMPENSATION

The new collective bargaining agreement includes a new scale for player compensation for participation in postseason games. The scale for 1993:

Wild Card Game (Division Winner)	$12,000
Wild Card Game (Other)	$ 7,500
Division Playoff Game	$12,000
Conference Championship Game	$23,500
Super Bowl Game (Winning Team)	$38,000
(Losing Team)	$23,500

SAN FRANCISCO 31 - NEW YORK GIANTS 14

(September 6, 1992 - Game 1 at New York)

The 49ers began their 47th professional football campaign (43rd year in the NFL) with a resounding 31-14 win at the Meadowlands.

It was a case of big plays and big days for San Francisco running backs and linebackers as FB Tom Rathman set a team record for most TD receptions by a running back with three scores, RB Ricky Watters earned the 110th 100-yard rushing game in club history, LB John Johnson returned an interception 56 yards for a TD, and LB Tim Harris collected two sacks.

Rathman's TD passes came from two different San Francisco signal callers. The first score of the day was a three-yard pass from QB Steve Young midway through the first period. Young, taken out of the game a short time later with a concussion, finished with four completions in six attempts for 27 yards and a TD. QB Steve Bono, who replaced Young in the first quarter, found Rathman for a 15-yard TD pass in the second period and a four-yarder in the third quarter. Bono finished 15 of 22 for 187 yards and two scores.

With 9:20 left in the game, San Francisco (leading 24-14) failed to score on four consecutive attempts from just one-yard away. The Giants and QB Phil Simms took over and began driving. They moved the ball from their own one-yard line to midfield when Johnson came up with his big interception return to break New York's back.

Watters led all rushers with 100 yards on 13 carries to go with his five receptions for 50 yards. FB Keith Henderson contributed 31 yards on eight carries and Rathman had 11 yards in four attempts. Three different Niners had five catches each, including Rathman, who totaled 34 yards (and three TDs).

WR Jerry Rice, who had a TD reception called back because of a penalty, ended the day with five receptions for 56 yards. WR John Taylor, who had a long non-scoring catch (52 yards) called back, finished with two receptions for 60 yards.

LB Bill Romanowski had six solo tackles, while Harris (2 for 14 yards), DE Dennis Brown (1 for 9), and DE Larry Roberts (1 for 4) combined for four sacks to lead the defense.

BUFFALO 34 - SAN FRANCISCO 31 (September 13, 1992 - Game 2 vs. Buffalo)

In an offensive battle reminiscent of the old AFL days, the Buffalo Bills snapped the 49ers' 10-game string of wins over AFC East opponents, 34-31, in San Francisco's home opener at Candlestick Park.

The game featured a combined 1,086 yards in offense (fourth best in NFL history), 65 points, six TD passes, over 800 yards passing (852 actually, third highest in NFL history).

The 49ers set a club record for Most Net Yards Total Offense with 598, bettering the 39-year-old mark of 597 set against Baltimore, December 13, 1953.

San Francisco QB Steve Young had a hand in nearly 500 yards himself as he rushed for 50 yards on seven carries and threw for 449 yards on 26 completions in 37 attempts. It was the third-highest output by a 49ers' passer in team history and the 25th highest in NFL history.

Three San Francisco receivers combined for 351 yards and a trio of touchdowns on 13 catches, and that group didn't include WR Jerry Rice who was lost for the game with a concussion suffered during his team's initial offensive series.

WR Odessa Turner, who replaced Rice, scored the 49ers' first TD on a 23-yarder from Young. Turner, who ended with 80 yards, also caught an NFL personal best 57-yard pass. Another back-up, WR Mike Sherrard, hauled in six passes for 159 yards (with a long of 56), and WR John Taylor finished with five catches for 112 yards and two TDs - including a 54-yard scoring reception in the third period.

The only series San Francisco failed to score on in the first half was its first possession when K Mike Cofer missed on a 33-yard attempt. The 49ers scored on each of their other first half possessions: Young-to-Turner's 23-yard TD (2nd series), FB Tom Rathman's two-yard TD run (3rd series), Cofer's 24-yard FG (4th series), Young-to-Taylor's seven-yarder with 11 seconds left in the half (5th series).

The lead changed hands three times in the second half with Buffalo gaining the final advantage at 34-31 with three minutes remaining.

San Francisco had a final chance to tie the game and send it into overtime, but Cofer missed on a 47-yard attempt with 60 seconds left.

SAN FRANCISCO 31 - NEW YORK JETS 14 (September 20, 1992 - Game 3 at New York)

QB Steve Young passed for two touchdowns and ran for another as the San Francisco 49ers defeated the New York Jets, 31-14, at the Meadowlands.

The 49ers opened the game with a reverse to WR Jerry Rice (gaining 23 yards) and six plays later, Young hit Rice for a five-yard score and a 7-0 lead. In the second quarter, San Francisco marched 72 yards on only four plays, the drive culminating when Young burst up the middle for a 10-yard score. WR Mike Sherrard started the drive when he pulled in a 47-yard strike from Young on the series' first play. The lead expanded to 17-0 after a 45-yard FG from K Mike Cofer, then 24-0 when Young threw an eight-yard pass to TE Jamie Williams seconds before halftime.

San Francisco continued its scoring outburst in the third quarter as RB Ricky Watters capped a time-consuming (8:05) 73-yard drive with his first NFL touchdown from a yard away.

The Jets recorded two fourth quarter TDs, as QB Ken O'Brien threw two scoring passes, the first to WR Rob Carpenter (seven yards) and the second to WR Terance Mathis (55 yards).

The victory proved to be costly however, as the 49ers lost two key players to leg injuries. WR John Taylor suffered a broken left fibula after recording a 9-yard reception in the first quarter, and DE Larry Roberts strained the medial collateral ligament in his right knee in the fourth quarter.

Sherrard filled in for the ailing Taylor and responded with five receptions for 66 yards. Rice also caught five passes, good for 73 yards and the 94th TD reception of his career. Watters paced the ground game, registering 55 yards on 17 carries and leading the team in rushing for the third consecutive week.

The defense was paced by CB Eric Davis' 10 tackles and LB-DE Tim Harris' three sacks (for 11 yards). NT Ted Washington also had a sack, while Roberts recorded an interception for 19 yards before his injury.

SAN FRANCISCO 16 - NEW ORLEANS 10 (September 27, 1992 - Game 4 at New Orleans)

Sparked by K Mike Cofer's 3-for-3 on field goal attempts and by five takeaways by the defense, the 49ers came out of the city known as "The Big Easy" with a not-so-easy 16-10 win.

The absence of "Instant Replay" was on the minds of many of the 68,591 fans in the Superdome as the 49ers appeared to have taken the initial lead when WR Jerry Rice hauled in a two-yard pass from QB Steve Young and fought for the goal line. He juked, wiggled and lunged — and the ball (in his out-stretched hand) appeared to break the plane of the goal line prior to hitting the ground and popping loose. The play was ruled a fumble and a touchback — no touchdown for San Francisco.

Instead, the Saints took over at their own 20 and drove 80 yards in eight plays as QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for an 11-yard score.

It looked like an offensive battle was developing as the 49ers came right back on their next series and drove 80 yards in nine plays with FB Tom Rathman picking up his fifth TD of the four-game season on a one-yard dash.

Those were the only TDs recorded on the night, however, as San Francisco's Cofer (10 points) out-kicked Saints' K Morten Andersen (4 points) three FGs (40, 26 and 42) to one (42).

It was a nail-biter to the very end, as turnovers ended the Saints' last two drives and CB Eric Davis was the benefactor on each: Martin's fumble on the 24 with 3:50 left (forced by S Johnnie Jackson and recovered by Davis) and a dramatic interception of an Hebert pass in the end zone with :10 seconds left.

RB Ricky Watters (18 carries for 76 yards and seven receptions for 52 yards) and Young (17 of 26 for 187 yards passing and eight rushes for 65 yards) led the Niners' offensive attack.

Defensively, Davis (6 tackles, 1 INT, 1 fumble recovery), S David Whitmore (6 tackles, 1 INT), Jackson (6 tackles, 1 forced fumble), LB Tim Harris (4 tackles, 1 sack for 8 yards), S Dana Hall (2 tackles, 1 INT), and LB Mike Walter (5 tackles, 1 fumble recovery) all contributed to a huge 49ers' effort.

SAN FRANCISCO 27 - LOS ANGELES RAMS 24 (October 4, 1992 - Game 5 vs. Los Angeles Rams)

K Mike Cofer's 21-yard FG with :01 remaining in the game gave the 49ers a dramatic 27-24 victory over the L.A. Rams.

Cofer's heroics capped a 77-yard drive that started on the San Francisco 20-yard line with 1:50 remaining in the game. QB Steve Young hit FB Tom Rathman for a six-yard gain, then connected with TE Brent Jones down the middle for a 43-yard effort. One play later, WR Jerry Rice made a clutch one-handed grab for 26 yards that put the ball on the L.A. five. Moments later, Cofer booted the game-winning kick.

San Francisco opened the afternoon's scoring when RB Ricky Watters scampered in from a yard away to make it 7-0. The Rams tied the contest in the second stanza when QB Jim Everett avoided a Niners' blitz and found TE Pat Carter for an 11-yard TD pass.

Cofer hit a 26-yard FG as time expired in the first half.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Rams recorded 10 unanswered points...the first coming off the foot of K Tony Zendejas (33-yard FG)...then seven more as CB Robert Bailey stepped in front of Young's pass and scampered 24 yards for the touchdown.

Young more than made up for that interception as he rushed for two fourth-period scores (8 yards and 39 yards, capping drives of 49 yards in five plays and 52 yards in three plays) to give the Niners a 24-17 lead with just 3:55 remaining. Both drives began with takeaways by San Francisco: a tipped pass by LB Bill Romanowski - intercepted by LB Keith DeLong...and a forced fumble by SS David Whitmore and recovered by FS Johnnie Jackson.

But the Rams weren't done. Everett guided a 69-yard, eight play drive, culminating when he hit WR Willie "Flipper" Anderson on a nine-yarder for the tying score, 24-24, with 1:50 remaining.

SAN FRANCISCO 24 - NEW ENGLAND 12 (October 11, 1992 - Game 6 at New England)

RB Ricky Watters, with his 188 yards of total offense and two fourth-quarter scores (a two-yard reception from QB Steve Young and a one-yard rush), guided San Francisco to a come-from-behind 24-12 victory over the Patriots on a foggy New England afternoon at Foxboro Stadium.

After a scoreless first period, San Francisco put the first points on the board as WR Jerry Rice caught a short pass from Young over the middle...joked, danced, then cut outside and raced 32 yards for the score. It was Rice's 95th TD catch and his 99th overall score. It was also his 101st NFL start, and he kept alive his streak of consecutive games with at least one reception - moving his total to 101 straight games.

The Niners moved to a 10-0 lead moments later on K Mike Cofer's 36-yard field goal, before New England closed to 10-3 on a 24-yard FG by K Charlie Baumann just after the two-minute warning.

New England came back in the third period, taking advantage of an aborted punt and a fumbled punt return, to take the lead, 12-10.

The Pats' points came on a 44-yard Baumann FG just four plays after P Klaus Wilmsmeyer mishandled a low snap (on a 4th-and-17) and was forced to run. He came up with a 10-yard rush, but was shy of the first down and N.E. took over at the 49ers' 31.

Then, four minutes later, WR Ron Lewis recorded his second fumble of the afternoon on a punt return and the Patriots came up with the ball on San Francisco's 40. Six plays later QB Hugh Millen found TE Ben Coates deep in the end zone for an 11-yard TD. The extra point attempt was blocked by DE Dennis Brown (the 49ers' first block of an extra point since NT Michael Carter blocked one against Seattle, November 25, 1985), but the Patriots led, 12-10, heading into the final period, setting the stage for Watters' fourth period heroics.

In that final stanza, Watters ran the ball six times for 47 yards (including a career long 30-yarder), caught four passes for 25 yards and scored two TDs. Overall, he led all rushers with 19 carries for a career-best 104 yards, and all receivers with a career-high 8 catches and 84 yards (including a career-long 29 yarder).

Young completed 19 of 27 passes for 234 yards and two TDs, while running the ball 9 times for 69 yards. FB Tom Rathman had 5 catches for 37 yards and Rice had 3 receptions for 60 yards and a score.

Defensively, LB Mike Walter had an outstanding game with 11 tackles (including 8 solo), a 1-yard sack, and a forced fumble. SS David Whitmore had personal bests with 10 total tackles and 7 solo stops. DE-LB Tim Harris shared a sack with DE Dennis Brown who also intercepted a pass, while DT-DE Pierce Holt had 6 tackles and a sack, and FS Johnnie Jackson registered a sack.

SAN FRANCISCO 56 - ATLANTA 17 (October 18, 1992 - Game 7 vs. Atlanta)

The 49ers celebrated their 100th Candlestick Park victory (including playoffs) with a one-sided 56-17 defeat of Atlanta.

San Francisco exploded for 436 yards and 42 points in the first half, before coasting with 154 yards and 14 points after intermission.

The Niners' 56 points were the most points ever scored at Candlestick. As a matter of fact, they were the most points scored by any 49ers' team since joining the NFL in 1950.

Some of the highlights included:

WR Jerry Rice registered 209 yards of total offense (one rush for 26 and 183 receiving on seven catches) and scored his 100th, 101st and 102nd career touchdowns (including his 96th and 97th receiving TDs).

QB Steve Young averaged 22.2 yards per completion, hitting on 18 of 28 passes for 399 yards and three TDs (including a season-long 80-yarder to Rice).

RB Ricky Watters recorded 132 yards of total offense (75 rushing and 57 receiving) and three rushing scores.

RB Amp Lee had career highs with nine rushes for 35 yards.

K Mike Cofer set NFL team records for Most PATs Made (8) and Most PATs Attempted (8), and he tied a personal mark for most kickoffs (9).

LB-DE Tim Harris recorded a sack, giving him 7.5 after just seven games—already more than last year's end-of-the-season leaders (DE Larry Roberts and LB-DE Charles Haley, who totaled 7 each).

CB Merton Hanks earned a career-high nine tackles (including two on special teams) and a pass defensed.

PHOENIX 24 - SAN FRANCISCO 14 (November 1, 1992 - Game 8 at Phoenix)

In a complete turn-around from its last game played (a 56-17 win over Atlanta) prior to the bye week layoff, San Francisco turned in one of its worst performances in years, losing 24-14 to the Cardinals in Phoenix.

The 49ers opened the contest as if they had not skipped a beat since that Atlanta game as they marched down the field in eight plays: QB Steve Young to TE Brent Jones (8 yards)...Young to RB Ricky Watters (13 yards)...Young to FB Tom Rathman (18 yards)...incomplete pass...Watters (17-yard run)...Young to Watters (15 yards)...Rathman (5-yard run)...Young to Rathman (3 yards) to the one-yard line before the bottom fell out!

On the very next play Young was sacked for minus-eight yards and his fumble was recovered by Phoenix.

Young, who was suffering from the flu, stayed in the game for only one more series before being replaced for the afternoon by QB Steve Bono.

Counting a punt, San Francisco ran only nine more plays the entire first half and went into the intermission scoreless for the first time since 1990.

The second half was a little better, as the Niners out-gained the host Cardinals 227 to 155 in total net offense in an attempt to climb back into the game.

San Francisco's first score of the game (WR Mike Sherrard's first TD of the season) came on a freak play: Bono hit Jones across the middle for 19 yards...however, Jones fumbled when he was tackled by LB Tyrone Stowe and LB Eric Hill recovered, the fumble on the run...but Hill had the ball stripped by Sherrard who raced 39 yards for the score.

The 49ers only other score came on a four-yard run by Watters, capping a nine-play, 88-yard drive in the final period that cut the Cardinals' lead to the final 24-14 count with 10 minutes to play.

On defense, LB-DE Tim Harris was one of few bright spots as he moved his team-leading sack total to 8.5 on the season with one on QB Chris Chandler:

SAN FRANCISCO 41 - ATLANTA 3 (November 9, 1992 - Game 9 at Atlanta)

San Francisco's defense forced three fumbles, recorded three sacks and intercepted three passes as the 49ers trounced the host Atlanta Falcons in the Georgia Dome, 41-3, before a national Monday Night Football audience.

San Francisco began slowly, but seemed to pick up momentum as the contest continued. It took over 10 minutes before the 49ers' put any points on the board as they produced a nine-play, 48-yard, five-minute drive on their second series of the game.

WR Odessa Turner hauled in a 12-yard pass from QB Steve Young with 4:54 remaining in the first period as the visiting Niners took the lead for good, 7-0. It was Turner's only reception on the night.

RB Ricky Watters registered San Francisco's second score, a 21-yard pass from Young for a 14-0 lead. Watters, who rushed a dozen times for 70 yards in the first half, finished the evening with 75 yards (19 carries) rushing and 25 yards (three catches) receiving.

Atlanta's only points came on K Norm Johnson's 33-yard FG with just two seconds left in the first half.

The second half belonged to the 49ers as K Mike Cofer, who recorded 11 points in this game (for 19 total in two games versus the Falcons in '92), had two third-quarter FGs (40 yards and 32 yards)...and FB Tom Rathman matched a career-high with his seventh TD (two yards) of the season with seven regular season games to go.

It was more of the same in the final period as WR Jerry Rice collected his 98th career TD reception and second-year CB Merton Hanks returned a punt 48 yards for the final TD of the evening. It was the first punt return for a score by a San Francisco player since 1988 when WR John Taylor streaked 95 yards for a team-record return versus Washington (Nov. 21).

CB Don Griffin had a great night despite suffering from the flu. He registered five tackles, five passes defended, one forced fumble, and one interception. CB Eric Davis and Hanks also had interceptions, while LB Bill Romanowski, CB Michael McGruder, and special teamer Amp Lee each recovered fumbles.

Offensively, Young was 12 of 18 passing for 143 yards and three TDs, and QB Steve Bono was a perfect one of one for 13 yards in relief. The pair completed passes to seven different receivers. Rice led the receiving corps with four catches for 45 yards and one TD.

SAN FRANCISCO 21 - NEW ORLEANS 20 (November 15, 1992 - Game 10 vs. New Orleans)

Only 46 seconds remained when San Francisco came up with its first lead of the game and held on to beat New Orleans, 21-20, before the fourth largest football crowd (64,895) ever at Candlestick Park.

The win gave San Francisco (8-2) the NFC West lead and a season series sweep of New Orleans (7-3). It also marked the fifth time in the last six games between these two teams that a contest has been decided by a touchdown or less.

That 13-play, 74-yard, game-winning drive was the second of two fourth-quarter scores for the 49ers as they erased a 20-7 New Orleans' lead in the game's final 11 minutes.

Both TDs came on passes from QB Steve Young to TE Brent Jones (the first one for 14 yards and the game-winner for eight yards).

San Francisco began slowly, scoring only seven points over the first three quarters, as New Orleans claimed leads of 3-0, 10-0, 10-7, 13-7 and 20-7, prior to heroics by Young, Jones and company.

The Niners' initial score came on an 80-yard second-period drive made up of all rushes. RB Ricky Walters carried eight times for 60 yards in that drive, FB Tom Rathman had his only rush of the game (three yards), and Young ran once (nine yards) and was sacked once (minus two yards) before scrambling the final 10 yards for the score.

The 49ers' second score came on an all-passing 65-yard drive. Young, who had only one incomplete pass during the drive, connected with Watters for four yards, TE Jamie Williams twice for 27 yards, and Jones twice for 34 yards (including the 14-yard TD).

San Francisco's final drive was a combination of passing and running, including three clutch catches by WR Jerry Rice for 29 hard-fought yards.

Young, who connected on 24 of 37 attempts for 205 yards and two TDs, carried the ball eight times for 58 yards and another score. Watters led all rushers with 115 yards on 21 carries for his third 100-yard performance of the season. Rice recorded eight receptions for 68 yards, Rathman had five catches for 33 yards, and Jones finished with four receptions for 54 yards and two TDs.

K Klaus Wilmsmeyer, who averaged 39.5 yards on four punts, recorded a beautiful 54-yarder under extreme pressure putting New Orleans inside its own 10-yard-line prior to the Niners' winning drive.

Defensively, rookie S Dana Hall registered his first career sack, a forced fumble and four tackles. CB Don Griffin had seven tackles and LB Mike Walter finished with five tackles.

SAN FRANCISCO 27 - LOS ANGELES RAMS 10 (November 22, 1992 - Game 11 at Los Angeles)

Behind the rushing of first-year RB Ricky Watters, who carried a career-high 26 times for a career-best 163 yards and two touchdowns, San Francisco earned a 27-10 win against the Rams in Anaheim.

It was the 49ers' ninth victory of the season and their sixth straight win over the Rams at Anaheim. The win gave them a sweep of NFC Western Division opponents for '92...their second such sweep in team history ('84 was the other) and only the ninth League-wide divisional sweep by any team since the AFL/NFL merger in 1970.

Watters had the first and final scores of the contest, both three-yarders. The first, capping a 10-play, 62-yard drive on San Francisco's second series and his second one, finishing off a 10-play, 61-yard drive that left no doubt about the victory. That drive was an all-rushing/no-passing march, the Niners' second such drive in two games (to go with a 12-play, 80-yard drive against N.O.).

Between Watters' scores, K Mike Cofer booted a pair of field goals (34 yards in the second period and 40 yards in the third), his 12th and 13th of the season...and WR Jerry Rice caught his 99th career TD pass moving him into a tie for second on the all-time NFL charts (with Don Hutson, behind NFL record holder Steve Largent, 100).

While San Francisco rushed for over 200 yards, its defense held the Rams to just 96 yards on the ground and 158 yards in the air, as LB Mike Walter (eight solo tackles) and S Dana Hall (five tackles) paced the Niners' defensive efforts.

SAN FRANCISCO 20 - PHILADELPHIA 14 (November 29, 1992 - Game 12 vs. Philadelphia)

San Francisco recorded its 10th consecutive 10-win campaign and clinched its ninth playoff spot in 10 seasons as the 49ers held off a late Eagles' rally for a 20-14 NFC win at Candlestick Park.

The Niners scored first as WR Jerry Rice caught his NFL record-tying 100th career TD pass...this time on a 22-yarder from QB Steve Young on the team's second possession of the game.

K Mike Cofer booted a 22-yard field goal in the second quarter and San Francisco led at the half, 10-0.

Philadelphia got on the board in the third quarter when WR Fred Barnett caught a 23-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham, cutting the Niners' lead to three points, 10-7.

That's as close as Philly got, however, as Cofer hit a 28-yard field goal in the third period. RB Dexter Carter, in only his second game back from injured reserve, hauled in his first pass reception of the year...for a 43-yard TD.

Rice, who caught a pass in his 107th consecutive contest, recorded his 42nd 100-yard game (counting four postseason dates) as he finished with eight catches for 133 yards and one TD. WR John Taylor had his second best performance of the year with four catches for 82 yards.

Young led the rushing efforts with 26 yards on six carries. RB Amp Lee filled in for RB Ricky Watters, who left the game in the first quarter with a shoulder injury. After replacing Watters, Lee got the majority of the running calls and finished with 25 yards on 11 carries.

LB-DE Tim Harris registered his 10th and 11th sacks of the season and LB Mike Walter recorded nine tackles to lead the defense.

SAN FRANCISCO 27 - MIAMI 3 (December 6, 1992 - Game 13 vs. Miami)

San Francisco's defense threw a first-half shut-out for the third straight week as the 49ERS beat Miami 27-3 on a cold, rainy Sunday afternoon at Candlestick Park.

The Niners earned their fifth consecutive win, remaining a step ahead of New Orleans in the NFC West race (11-2 to 10-3), but the story of the day belonged to history-making WR Jerry Rice. He caught seven passes for 79 yards and an NFL record 101st career TD reception on a 12-yard, fourth-quarter slant.

Rice became only the ninth player in NFL history to top the 10,000 plateau in career receiving yardage (10,037) and moved into ninth (593) and fifth (106), respectively, for career NFL receptions and career NFL touchdowns scored.

In the second quarter, FB Tom Rathman set personal career marks with his eighth and ninth TDs of the season (27-yard pass from QB Steve Young and a 1-yard run) to initiate San Francisco's scoring. K Mike Cofer connected on his second PAT attempt (after having his first one blocked) for a 13-0 halftime lead.

Miami's lone points of the day came on a 32-yard field goal by K Pete Stoyanovich in the third period to close San Francisco's lead to 13-3. The Niners came right back, however, as rookie RB Amp Lee, making his first NFL start, scored his first professional TD on a one-yard dive. He finished as the game's leading rusher with 58 yards on 16 carries and caught four passes for 22 yards.

Young, with 19 of 27 for 220 yards and two TDs, out-dueled QB Dan Marino (19 of 31 for 192 yards, and no scores). And, DE-LB Tim Harris recorded his 12th sack of the season, while Young ran for 20 yards and never went down passing.

Besides the sack by Harris, LB Keith DeLong and S Thane Gash each forced fumbles and S Dana Hall recovered a fumble.

SAN FRANCISCO 20 - MINNESOTA 17 (December 13, 1992 - Game 14 at Minnesota)

San Francisco's defense came through under pressure and the 49ers won a playoff-style battle from the NFC Central Division leading Minnesota Vikings, 20-17.

San Francisco took the initial 3-0 lead on K Mike Cofer's 46-yard FG in the first quarter, but on the next Niners' series, CB Audray McMillian scored on a 51-yard interception of a QB Steve Young pass to give the home team the lead, 7-3.

Rookie RB Amp Lee, who rushed for 134 yards in 23 carries, scored two second-period TDs on a three-yard pass reception and a two-yard run, and the 49ers led 17-7 at the half.

Both teams had third-period field goals and the Vikings closed to within three points, 20-17, following an aborted punt attempt. P Klaus Wilmsmeyer was tackled at the San Francisco four as he was forced to run due to a high snap from center and a heavy Minnesota rush. Viking RB Terry Allen scored three plays later.

Following the kickoff, San Francisco was forced to punt again on its next series and Wilmsmeyer came through with a career-long 58-yarder. And, that's when the Niners' defense (led by LB-DE Tim Harris, DT-DE Pierce Holt, LB Mike Walter, came through and held Minnesota to just nine yards in 10 plays.

The Vikings punted the ball back to the 49ers with 2:13 remaining. San Francisco, led by Lee, ran out the clock.

SAN FRANCISCO 21 - TAMPA BAY 14 (December 19, 1992 - Game 15 vs. Tampa Bay)

With San Francisco's 21-14 Saturday afternoon win over Tampa Bay at Candlestick Park, the 49ers achieved all their regular season goals.

San Francisco captured the 1992 NFC Western Division title for the sixth time in the last seven seasons, eighth in the past 10 years, and ninth in the last 12 campaigns. The 49ers also finished with the best record in the NFL for '92, secured home field advantage throughout the playoffs, and a week off from competition following the regular season finale.

Tampa Bay scored first on a "flea flicker" when WR Gary Anderson took the hand-off and pitched the ball back to QB Vinny Testaverde, who threw 51 yards to FB Anthony McDowell for the score.

San Francisco tied it at 7-7 when QB Steve Young found WR John Taylor for a nine-yard TD pass as time ran out in the first quarter. In the third quarter, Young hit WR Jerry Rice on a 32-yard scoring toss as the Niners took the lead, 14-7.

The Bucs kept the pressure on with a one-yard, fourth-down TD run by RB Reggie Cobb to begin the fourth quarter, before Young-to-Rice struck again — this time on a 30-yard TD.

The two scores were the 102nd and 103rd TD receptions of Rice's career. He finished with seven catches for 118 yards.

Defensively, DE-DT Pierce Holt and DE Kevin Fagan led the way with eight tackles and a sack for Holt and two tackles and a sack for Fagan.

SAN FRANCISCO 24 - DETROIT 6 (December 28, 1992 - Game 16 vs. Detroit)

The 49ers closed their regular season with a 24-6 win over the visiting Detroit Lions in front of a rain-soaked Candlestick crowd and a national Monday night viewing audience on ABC-TV.

San Francisco finished 14-2 for the third time in the last four seasons and ended the season with the NFL's best won-lost record for the fourth time since 1987.

QB Steve Young paced the team to a 7-6 halftime lead and won his second straight NFL passing crown while RB Ricky Watters became the sixth Niner to gain 1,000 yards rushing in a season. The real news however, was the return of QB Joe Montana to action after nearly two years on the team's injured list.

Montana added to San Francisco's lead as he played the second half and finished with 126 yards and two TD passes on 15 of 21 passing.

Rookie RB Amp Lee enjoyed a fine evening as Watters' replacement as he gained 44 yards rushing (10 carries) and 56 yards and one TD receiving (seven catches).

Defensively, LB-DE Tim Harris recorded three sacks to finish with 17, the most by a San Francisco player since 1983 when DE-LB Fred Dean had 17.5 sacks.

SAN FRANCISCO 20 - WASHINGTON 13 (January 9, 1993 - NFC Divisional Playoffs vs. Washington)

The 49ers overcame four costly turnovers against the Redskins to register a 20-13 victory over Washington in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game at rainy Candlestick Park.

The win was San Francisco's 21st in the last 23 games over two seasons, and the team's first postseason victory since a 28-10 win over Washington in January of '91.

It was a balanced offensive attack and a fierce defense that led the way to the Niners' win. QB Steve Young (20 of 30 for 227 yards) completed at least two passes to five different receivers. WR Jerry Rice led the way with six catches for 88 yards, while RB Ricky Watters rushed 18 times for 83 yards to lead the ground game.

WR John Taylor, who finished with four receptions for 26 yards got his teammates on the scoreboard first with a five-yard catch of a Young pass in the end zone to climax San Francisco's opening drive of 83-yards in six plays.

The teams traded FGs before TE Brent Jones scored on a 16-yard pass from Young as the first half ended with a 17-3 home team lead.

Two second half fumbles by San Francisco (one in the third period and the other in the fourth quarter) led to 10 Washington points and turned the game into a nail-biter down the stretch and that's when the 49ers' defense came through.

The defense was led by a team-record three sacks by DE-DT Pierce Holt, CB Don Griffin's six tackles, and S Dave Whitmore's five tackles, one interception, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery. DE-LB Tim Harris added four tackles and a sack, DE Dennis Brown had four tackles and a sack, and LB Mike Walter added three tackles and a game-saving fumble recovery late in the contest.

DALLAS 30 - SAN FRANCISCO 20

(January 17, 1993 - NFC Championship Game vs. Dallas)

Big plays by the Dallas offense and an uncharacteristic four turnovers by San Francisco resulted in a 30-20 Cowboys' victory in the NFC Championship Game.

Dallas advanced to Super Bowl XXVII, while the 49ers completed their season with a 15-3 mark (14-2 in the regular season).

Following a fumbled punt return by the 49ers at their own 22-yard line, K Lin Elliott booted a 20-yard field goal to give the Cowboys a 3-0 lead with 8:20 remaining in the first quarter.

After KR Marc Logan returned the ensuing kickoff 50 yards to the Dallas 48, the 49ers took a 7-3 lead when QB Steve Young scored from a yard out. Young's score culminated an eight-play drive that took 4:31 off the clock.

The Cowboys recaptured the lead 10-7 when RB Emmitt Smith capped a 39-yard, seven-play drive with a four-yard TD run with 5:05 remaining in the second quarter. The scoring drive was set up by a RB Ricky Watters fumble.

K Mike Cofer's 28-yard field goal with 1:01 remaining in the first half tied the score at 10-10, culminating a 65-yard, 10-play drive.

In the second half, Dallas used a ball-control offense consuming nearly 11 minutes on two third-quarter drives to take a lead it would not relinquish.

The Cowboys took the second half kickoff and went 78 yards in 4:14 with FB Daryl Johnston going the final three yards for the TD to give the visitors a 17-10 advantage.

The 49ers cut Dallas' lead to 17-13 on K Cofer's 42-yard field goal with 6:25 remaining in the third quarter.

However, the Cowboys went on another long, time consuming drive (14 plays, 79 yards, nine minutes elapsed) that was climaxed by QB Troy Aikman's 16-yard scoring pass to Smith, which gave Dallas a 24-13 lead.

After holding Dallas on fourth down at their own seven-yard line, the 49ers took over on downs and went the length of the field in 2:28 (nine plays, 93 yards). The drive ended when Young connected with WR Jerry Rice from five yards out to cut the deficit to 24-20 with 4:22 remaining.

With San Francisco back in the contest and the fans in a frenzy, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a short slant pass that resulted in a 70-yard catch-and-run. The play moved the Cowboys to the 49ers' nine-yard line and three plays later, Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin on a six-yard TD pass. The score gave the Cowboys a 30-20 lead and ended the locals' hopes of a comeback.

Young completed 25 of 35 passes for 313 yards and a touchdown. Rice, who established NFL postseason records for most career receptions (75), most touchdowns (13) and tied the League mark for most games with 100 or more yards receiving (5 — John Stallworth), led the team with eight catches for 123 yards and a TD.

Defensively, CB Eric Davis had a team-leading eight tackles, while S Dana Hall and LB Tim Harris registered six tackles apiece. LBs Bill Romanowski, Martin Harrison and Harris each recorded a sack.

The 49ers' Historical Highlights

Here are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1950 — The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 — In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle" the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y.A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952 — After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid season. Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953 — The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9-3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (The Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 — Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Y.A. Tittle, Hugh McElhenny, and Joe Perry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction in consecutive seasons.

1955 — With Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956 — In Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They went 4-0-1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 — This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a "cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Y.A. Tittle to rookie R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, after holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 — An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 — With Howard W. (Red) Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 — Howard W. (Red) Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30-22 upset of Baltimore.

1961 — The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially a 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, John Brodie took over again in the "I" formation and had the finest season in 49er QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 — For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false — the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 — A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only League defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964 — Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the League. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira, and linebacker Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 record.

1965 — Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL. Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie Ken Willard and veteran John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The 7-6-1 record included a season-opening 52-24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 — After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final League game. Guard John Thomas and end Dave Parks were all-pro, and they joined guard Howard Mudd, center Bruce Bosley, fullback Ken Willard and linebacker Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 — An auspicious start (5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. Quarterback George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots however, as John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a League game. Guard Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968 — Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, receiver Clifton McNeil and running back Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, linebacker Dave Wilcox and defensive back Kermit Alexander, sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and guard Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL, and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 — Beseated by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4-8-2 and five players — Jimmy Johnson, Dave Wilcox, Elmer Collett, Ken Willard and rookie Gene Washington — were selected for the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also all-pro and winner of the Eshmont Award.

1970 — This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10-3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. In a season of superlatives, John Brodie was the NFL's "Player of the Year," Bruce Taylor was NFC "Rookie of the Year," Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC "Coach of the Year." Brodie, receiver Gene Washington, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were all-pro and joined tackle Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971 — The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season was also the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. Center Forrest Blue, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were all-pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Gene Washington, Vic Washington, Cedrick Hardman and Bruce Taylor.

1972 — Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on 49er prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20-17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. Center Forrest Blue, defensive back Jimmy Johnson, tight end Ted Kwalick, wide receiver Gene Washington and linebacker Dave Wilcox were all-pro selections.

1973 — In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of quarterback John Brodie and defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. Center Forrest Blue and Dave Wilcox were all-pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Woody Peoples and Tom Wittum.

1974 — The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6-8. Running back Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News "Rookie of the Year" and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with quarterback Tom Owen and defensive back Mike Holmes. Center Forrest Blue and punter Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial all-pro linebacker Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 — A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. High point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, defensive end Cedrick Hardman was the club's first-ever two-time Eshmont Award winner.

1976 — A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new quarterback Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. Tommy Hart was named all-pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, Cleveland Elam, and Dave Washington. Center Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Tommy Hart became a two-time winner of the Eshmont Award and cornerback Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 — In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began an all new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5-9. Strong safety Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Eshmont Award. Cleveland Elam was selected all-pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978 — The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Conner, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. Running back Paul Hofer, who replaced D.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979 — The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst ranked offensive team in the League in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. Running back Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. Quarterback Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. Kicker Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage, and also led the league with that mark. O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 — In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14 enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That Dec. 7, in Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. End Jim Stuckey and punter Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, fullback Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with a team-record 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at .645 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 — It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to: a 16-3 record (best 1981 record in the League, fourth best in NFL history, and best ever for the 49ers), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers), and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh was named to every possible NFC Coach-of-the-Year award and to all seven NFL Coach-of-the-Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl — Dwight Clark, Randy Cross, Joe Montana, Fred Dean, Ronnie Lott, and Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to all-pro teams as recognized by the NFL — Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl

XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year (NFL Players Association), and NFC Defensive Player-of-the-Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, Mich., in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including that season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins — before a loss to Cleveland 15-12 — and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship, and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice — including all three postseason foes — and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-46-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (Carlton Williamson, Eric Wright, and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, Freddie Solomon, and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 — As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season...but then, not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the League did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus all-pro (and NFL Player-of-the-Year by Sports Illustrated). Keena Turner (2nd team all-pro), Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), Keith Fahnhorst, and Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight +300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 — For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (3rd best regular season victory total in club history) and Western Division Champions (5th time since 1970, 2nd time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included: Joe Montana (the League's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17½), Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven...two for scores), Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), Ray Werschling (team record 126 points, including a perfect 51 of 51 PATs), offensive linemen Randy Cross, Keith Fahnhorst, and John Ayers, running backs Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving) and Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving), and NFL All-Rookie Team pick Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 — The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a League record 15 games, including all eight road contests — setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by Roger Craig and Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a League low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges — Montana, Wendell Tyler, Keith Fahnhorst, Randy Cross, and Fred Quillian on offense and Dwight Hicks, Ronnie Lott, Carlton Williamson, and Eric Wright (the entire Niners' secondary), and Keena Turner on defense.

1985 — At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, Roger Craig and Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC Rookie-of-the-Year and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter, and DE John Hart). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did defensive backs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986 — The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981.

Offensively, the team was led by all-pro wide receiver Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on pick-off returns tied another club mark. Ronnie Lott tied Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. Quarterback Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, for example, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 — The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a League-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards, and was best among League defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners' history that the team led the League in fewest total yards allowed.

Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide-out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by nose tackle Michael Carter and running back Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 — The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with :34 remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade, and the rights to the title "team of the 1980's."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. Along the way to closing out the year, RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners' single season standards for field goals attempted (38) and three-pointers made (27).

Jerry Rice went on to a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota; A Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago; and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor, and Craig were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989 — George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third world championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia.

San Francisco split a pair of divisional contests in Weeks 4-5, losing to the L.A. Rams before defeating New Orleans. Due to elbow and knee injuries, Montana played only two quarters the next three games. However, under the direction of QB Steve Young, the team scored victories at Dallas (31-14), vs. New England (37-20), and at the N.Y. Jets (23-10).

Impressive victories over New Orleans (31-13) and Atlanta (45-3) opened the month of November, but the team's winning streak was stopped at six by a determined Green Bay Packers' squad (21-17). The 49ers, however, rebounded and turned back the Giants with 10 points in the final period, for a 34-24 win. The team then beat the Falcons 23-10, in Atlanta.

San Francisco's next opponent, the arch-rival Rams, were two games behind the front-running 49ers. The Rams jumped out to a 17-0 first quarter lead; by the fourth quarter L.A. had a 27-10 margin. However, the 49ers made the most inconceivable, yet awe-inspiring, comeback in many a season by rallying to win 30-27.

San Francisco closed out the regular season with impressive home victories against Buffalo (21-10) and Chicago (26-0). K Mike Cofer's four placements against the Bears gave him 29 field goals on the season, establishing a team record. Cofer's 136 points topped the League.

The shutout of the Bears was the first for San Francisco since the finale of the '87 regular season (48-0 vs. Rams). The defensive unit was the third stingiest (Denver - 226, N.Y. Giants 252), allowing only 253 points in '89, and ranked fourth in total yardage surrendered. S Ronnie Lott, who set career team standards for interceptions (48) and interception return yardage (617), CB Don Griffin, and Cofer were selected All-NFC. Lott was voted to play in his eighth Pro Bowl.

Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, Guy McIntyre, and QB Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the League. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season, and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions.

Montana had the best season of his eleven-year career. A consensus player-of-the-year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set an NFL single season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award, given annually to the Niner who best exemplifies courageous and inspirational play.

Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest.

The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however; two long second quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception, gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win.

The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive world championship. The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records, and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990 — The Niners finished their 41st season in the National Football League with an NFL-best 14-2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15-13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl.

In addition to recording the NFL's best won-loss mark for the second straight season (14-2), the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983-84, & 1986-90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams are second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

The 49ers appeared in the NFL's postseason playoffs for the eighth straight campaign (1984-90), and made their sixth NFC Championship Game appearance over a 10-year span (1981, 1983-84, 1988-90).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in League history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91.

The 49ers also earned an NFL-best seventh straight double-digit win season, and a League-best eighth consecutive 10-win-or-better campaign in as many full seasons (1982 was a strike-shortened nine-game slate). In addition, the locals became the first team in NFL history to win 14-or-more games in three seasons (15-1 in 1984, 14-2 in '89, and 14-2 in '90).

QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman-of-the-Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC), and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the Conference.

On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in League history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14.

The defensive side of the ball was led by LB/DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops.

A number of all-time club records also fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506.

The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott, and G Guy McIntyre, while QB Joe Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

1991 — It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991.

After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City, and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process.

At 10-6, San Francisco earned an NFL-best ninth straight double-digit win season...and a League-best 10th consecutive 10-win-or-better campaign in as many full seasons (since 1982 was a strike-shortened nine-game slate). In addition, the team's 7-1 mark at Candlestick Park tied a club record for most regular season victories at home (a mark set in 1981 and equaled in 1984).

WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club, Conference, and League history, taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. He also extended his team marks for receiving yardage (9,072), total TDs (97), and receiving TDs (93). His 93 aerial scores rank him third among all-time NFL receivers, behind Steve Largent (100) and Don Hutson (99).

Rice finished the campaign as the No. 3 pass catcher in the NFL with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season; and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions.

QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured (11-3 at Atlanta), QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. He placed fourth in the NFL passing race at 88.5.

Third-year RB Keith Henderson finished with a team-high 561 yards rushing, while K Mike Cofey's 91 points led the 49ers in scoring. Dexter Carter, Henderson's backfield mate etched his name in team annals with a 98-yard kickoff return vs. New Orleans (12-1).

On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78), and passes defended (16); and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3).

LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears (12-23) set a team record and was the third longest return in League history.

The 49ers finished the '91 season with the highest rated offense in the NFC and a No. 3 ranking in the League. In pass yardage, San Francisco led the Conference and trailed only Houston in the NFL rankings.

The 49ers also paced the NFC in first downs (336) and finished second in third down conversions (47.7 percent).

Defensively, San Francisco ranked fifth in the NFC and sixth in the NFL. The squad was fourth against the rush and eighth versus the pass in the final Conference standings.

San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as WR Jerry Rice, Guy McIntyre, and LB-DE Charles Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play in the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

During 1991, three 49ers were chosen as the NFL Player-of-the-Week. QB Steve Young was the first, earning the honor for his October 20 performance vs. the Detroit Lions. In that game, Young threw for a team-record 18 of 20 (90%) for 237 yards and two TDs, leading the team to a 35-3 win over the eventual NFC Central champs. He also won the NFL's Player-of-the-Month award for October.

QB Steve Bono was next, capturing the award for his performance (27 of 41, 347 yards, three TDs) vs. New Orleans, December 1. The following week at Seattle, WR John Taylor caught seven passes for 113 yards and the game-winning TD to earn the League's weekly honor.

Taylor was also selected by his teammates as the 37th recipient of the Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers' most prestigious annual honor.

S Dave Waymer was named by his teammates as the winner of the annual Ed Block Award for his unusual courage on the field.

In addition, CB Kevin Lewis was selected for the NFL's "Extra Effort" award for October. The award, which was established this season by Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, is presented monthly to an NFL player who goes out of his way to make a contribution to his community.

1992 — The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record.

Although San Francisco fell one game short of Super Bowl XXVII, it showed once again why it is considered the model organization in the NFL. Aside from finishing with the League's best regular season win-loss record (14-2), the 49ers won their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons.

Not bad for a team that entered training camp with five new assistant coaches, and faced a schedule that included Super Bowl XXVI participant Buffalo, three '91 division champions, five playoff teams from the previous campaign, and more than 40,000 miles of travel.

In the NFC divisional playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20-13), advancing to the Championship Game for the seventh time in 12 seasons. However, the following week in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30-20.

At 14-2, the Niners earned an NFL record 10th straight double-digit win season and a League-best 11th consecutive 10-win-or-better campaign in as many full regular seasons (since 1982 was a strike-shortened nine-game slate). It also was the third time in the last four years that San Francisco posted the League's best win-loss mark. Additionally, the team's 7-1 record at Candlestick Park tied a club record for most regular season home victories (a mark set in 1981, and equaled in 1984 and '91).

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Game 12 against the Philadelphia Eagles (Nov. 29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (Dec. 6). Rice also set a team record for consecutive games with at least one pass reception (11), and extended his team marks for career receiving yardage (10,273) and total TDs (108). Additionally, Rice established an NFL mark for most postseason TD receptions with his 13th playoff scoring catch, a five-yarder from QB Steve Young in the NFC Championship Game (Jan. 17). He finished the campaign as the No. 3 pass receiver in the NFC with 84 catches and 1,201 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record seventh consecutive season (tying the NFL record).

QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL's Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in League history that anyone has posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year.

Sidelined for nearly two seasons with an elbow injury, QB Joe Montana made a most anticipated return to action in the season finale vs. Detroit (Dec. 28) before a sellout crowd and a Monday night television audience. Appearing in the second half against the Lions, Montana completed 15 of 21 passes for 126 yards and two TDs. Most of his playing time came in a driving rainstorm.

RB Ricky Walters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. Walters went over the century mark in rushing yards four times during the '92 campaign. Additionally, he caught 43 passes and scored 11 TDs (nine rushing, two receiving). K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year. Cofer is the first player in team history to register four 100-plus points seasons. Plan B signee Marc Logan posted team highs in kickoff returns (22) and kickoff return yardage (478), while free agent CB Alan Grant had a team-leading 29 punt returns.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. Harris' sack total tied for second in the NFL with San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (17), behind Clyde Simmons of Philadelphia (19).

CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defended.

The 49ers finished the 1992 season with the highest rated offense in the NFL, averaging 387.2 yards per game. The team also set the standard for the NFC in passing yardage with its 242.5 yards per game.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56-17, Oct. 18).

San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. WR Jerry Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and QB Steve Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, RB Ricky Walters, and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play in the islands, and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.
